11. Tufts has a variety of endowed scholarship funds for outstanding students who meet the various criteria of these funds. These scholarships typically replace the Tufts grant award. Students do not request these funds and eligibility is determined by the Financial Aid Office. If assigned, do you give Tufts permission to release your academic and biographical data to endowed scholarship donors, and are you willing to write a thank-you letter to a donor? ____ Yes ____ No

12. Use this space to answer any questions more fully or to describe any special family circumstance you wish to bring to the attention of the Financial Aid Committee. Attach additional pages as necessary.

PARENT AND STUDENT STATEMENT

We have reviewed the answers to all questions on this form and do solemnly affirm that all the information reported on it is complete and correct. We will notify the Office of Financial Aid, in writing, if the student withdraws from the university, reduces courses below three in either semester, or commutes from home at any time after stating that the student will live away from home during the school year. We understand that unsatisfactory academic progress or failure to fulfill these obligations may result in the discontinuance of any aid awarded. We will send timely notice of any significant increase in our family income or assets (as reported on the CSS PROFILE or FAFSA), in college plans of other children, or of the receipt of other scholarships or grants.
