

Scholarship Funds

University scholarship funds available to students in the College of Liberal Arts, Jackson College, and the School of Engineering are listed in this section. The endowment of the university's scholarship funds has been invested and the income is used to provide financial aid to students as described in the financial aid section. Scholarship funds intended solely for Jackson College are preceded by an asterisk.

All of these funds are awarded based on financial need and the recipients are chosen by the financial aid office. No separate application is necessary.

The Jonathan Abarbanel Scholarship was established in 2014 by Jonathan B. Abarbanel, A'68 to provide financial aid for undergraduates in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences, with a preference for third and fourth year students majoring in the Department of Drama and Dance.

The Alireza Family International Scholarship, established in 2000 to provide scholarships for highly qualified Muslim students who need financial assistance to be able to enroll at Tufts.

The Alice Harrison Allen Endowed Scholarship, established in 2008, in support of financial aid for Tufts undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Lizzie P. Allen Scholarship, founded in 1900 by Lizzie P. Allen, of Derby Line, Vermont.

The Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity Fund, founded in 1981. Preference is given to descendants of alumni who were members of Alpha Sigma Phi at Tufts.

The Altman Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2013 to support scholarships within the School of Engineering to benefit undergraduate students with an interest in developing engineering skills to solve critical medical, environmental or public health problems and who are active in extracurricular activities on campus.

The Alfred E. Anderson Scholarship, established in 2002 to provide scholarship awards to United States citizens.

The Anderson Scholarship, founded in 1890 by John M. Anderson, of Salem, in the name of John M. and Rebecca Anderson.

The Arthur J. Anderson Scholarship, established in 1954 by Arthur J. Anderson of the Class of 1912.

The Gilbert A. and Robena J. Andrew Scholarship Fund, established in 1985 by the estate of Dr. Norman W. Andrew in honor of his parents to aid students in the field of premedical studies.

The Norman W. Andrew Scholarship Fund, established in 1985 by the estate of Norman W. Andrew to aid students in the field of biology.

The Eileen Fox Aptman, J'90 and Lowell Aptman Endowed Scholarship, established in 2011 in the School of Arts and Sciences, to help strengthen and support Tufts University's progress to become a need-blind institution.

The Jesse Moses Aronson Scholarship, established in 1951 by Jesse Moses Aronson of the Class of 1918, to be awarded each year to an outstanding applicant for admission to the School of Engineering who needs financial help to attend college.

The Ashley Family Endowed Scholarship Fund was established by Jonathan Ashley, A'88 and Susan Ashley to provide financial aid for Tufts University undergraduate students.

The Association of Tufts Alumnae, Inc. Scholarship, established in 1957 for an annual scholarship to be awarded to a Jackson student who has completed one year successfully and is selected by a university committee, with the approval of the dean of Jackson College.

The Jack and Myrtle Atlas Scholarship, established in 1987 to provide financial aid to needy undergraduates, with preference to students from California.

The Eugene Averell and Elizabeth Harlow Averell Scholarship, established in 1952 by provision in the will of Eugene Averell of the Class of 1895, the income to be paid annually to a meritorious student.

The Cyrus V. Bacon and Ada B. W. Bacon Scholarship, founded in 1915 by Mrs. Ada B. W. Bacon, of Hingham, Massachusetts.

The Bacow/Gordon Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 by Michael S. Gordon, A'87 and Christina Gordon, in honor of Lawrence S. Bacow and Adele Fleet Bacow. This scholarship recognizes the visionary leadership President Bacow provided Tufts between 2001 and 2011 and supports his goal of removing economic obstacles to talented students seeking a college education.

The Mitchell and Ruth Bacow Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2003 as part of the Pritzker Challenge to benefit outstanding undergraduate students and to increase the diversity of the student body.

The Crosby F. Baker Memorial Scholarship, established in 1955 by colleagues, friends, former students, and family in memory of Crosby F. Baker of the Class of 1910, member of the faculty from 1900 to 1954.

The Balfour Scholarship Fund, established in 1989 by a generous grant from the L. G. Balfour Foundation to aid talented minority students in need of financial assistance.

The George Stevens Ballard Scholarship, founded in 1910 by Caroline D. M. Ballard, of Augusta, Maine.

The Almon Ballou, Carolyn Clark Scholarship, established in 1954 by Carolyn Clark Bigelow of the Class of 1900 in memory of her grandfather, Almon Ballou.

The Hosea Ballou II Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1891 by Mrs. Mary T. Goddard, of Newton, Massachusetts.

The Latimer W. Ballou Scholarship, founded in 1898 by Latimer W. Ballou, of Woonsocket, Rhode Island.

The John and Staci Barber Endowed Scholarship, established in 2008 to support scholarships within the University and to increase the diversity of the Tufts undergraduate student body.

The Barnard Scholarships, founded in 1897 by Mrs. Caroline M. Barnard, of Everett, Massachusetts.

The Esther and Philip Bernet Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 by Dr. Sylvan Bernet, former Tufts professor, in honor of his parents. The scholarship benefits undergraduates in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The John K. and Margaret G. Baronian Scholarship, established in 1977 by John K. Baronian, A'50, in memory of his immigrant parents, survivors of the Armenian Genocide of 1915, who provided the inspiration for his pursuit of education. It was with the desire to help others to pursue their educational goals that this memorial scholarship was given.

The Henry F. Barrows Scholarship, founded in 1891 by Henry F. Barrows, of North Attleboro, Massachusetts.

The Nancy Bartlett Scholarship, founded in 1897 by Mrs. Nancy Bartlett, of Milford, Massachusetts.

The Baxt Family Scholarship, established in 2013 to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Bay Bank Middlesex Scholarship, founded in 1980 by Bay Bank Middlesex of Burlington, Massachusetts.

The Walter P. Beckwith Scholarship Fund, established in 1947 under the will of Hira R. Beckwith, of Claremont, New Hampshire, the income to be used to assist worthy young men in acquiring a college education.

The Beelzebub Golden Anniversary Scholarship Fund, established in 1988 by the Beelzebub Alumni Association to provide scholarship to needy undergraduates who are members of the Beelzebubs.

The Rose Bendetson Memorial Scholarship Fund, established by Mr. and Mrs. Norris Bendetson as a memorial to the mother of Norris Bendetson, A'41. The gift is to be used for needy and deserving students, with preference given to those who are residents of Haverhill, Massachusetts.

The Bendheim Family Scholarship, founded in 1985 by the family of Thomas L. Bendheim, A'85, of Scarsdale, New York, to enrich the diversity of the student body in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson by supporting a student of high scholastic standing and limited means, with preference to students from the five boroughs of New York City.

The Bendheim Family Study Abroad Scholarship, established in 1999 to provide financial support to Tufts students studying abroad.

The Dr. Karl T. Benedict Sr. and Daisy Benedict Scholarship Fund, established in 2004 to provide financial aid to students in the Tufts College of Liberal Arts.

The Carol and John Bennett Family Scholarship Fund, established in 2012 by Dr. and Mrs. John M. and Carol R. Bennett, J'82P, A'86P. Preference is for undergraduate students enrolled in the School of Arts and Sciences who wish to pursue careers in medicine.

The Andrea Caponigro Berthel Scholarship, established in 1990 by friends and family of Andrea Caponigro Berthel, a former member of the Tufts University trustees' office. This is the first scholarship in Tufts' history to be named in honor of a staff member. The income from this fund will be awarded annually to two deserving students who are graduates of Medford and Malden high schools. The scholarship is to be based on merit as well as need.

The Newman Peter and Genevieve Blane Birk Scholarship, for worthy, deserving, and able students in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson. Founded in 1984 in memory of two Braker Fellows who became distinguished professors of English at Tufts.

Ronald Louis Blackburn, Jr., A'85 Scholarship Fund, established in 1986 in memory of Ronald Blackburn to provide financial assistance to African-American students. Selection of the recipients will be based on record of achievement, potential for leadership, and demonstrated financial need.

The John Twiss Blake Fund, established in 1990 by the estate of John Twiss Blake to assist students in the School of Engineering.

The Sophie and Arthur Blecker University Scholarship Fund, established in 1989 by Susan Blecker Cohen, J'66; George Cohen; Marcia Zaroff Blecker, J'69; and Robert Blecker, T'69; awarded to a student entering the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson who has financial need, and who holds the promise of superior achievement as an undergraduate.

The Barry L. and Lilia C. Bloom Family Scholarship, established in 2007 to provide financial aid to achieve the educational benefits of diversity in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Kenneth and Debra Bloom Scholarship, established in 2008 to support scholarships within the School of Engineering and the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Joseph A. Boccino Boston Post Society of Military Engineers Scholarship, established in 2007 to assist in funding the education of a student residing in Massachusetts, Northeastern Connecticut, Northern Rhode Island or Southern New Hampshire, enrolled in the civil or environmental engineering program.

The Elizabeth Warren Bond Scholarship Fund, founded in 1933 for deserving Jackson students.

The Margaret Helen Bond Scholarship, founded in 1933 for deserving Jackson students.

The Charles and Fannie A. Miner Booth Scholarship, founded in 1900 by Charles Booth, of Springfield, Vermont.

The Kennison T. Bosquet Scholarship Fund, established in 1977 by the bequest of the late Mr. Bosquet, whose wife Elizabeth was a member of the Jackson College Class of 1931. The income is to be awarded for scholarships at the discretion of the university.

The Boston Tufts Alliance Scholarship, created through the generosity of members of the Boston Tufts Alliance group to support financial aid for undergraduate students at Tufts, with a preference for students from the Boston area.

The Laurie Bove Scholarship, established in 1996 in memory of Laurie Bove of the Class of 1984 by her family and friends, to provide financial aid to female residents of Medford who come to Tufts with an interest in occupational therapy.

The William L. Bradley and Clara M. Pizzarello Scholarship, established in 2011 in memory of Dean Grant Curtis to benefit undergraduates in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Ellen F. Bragg Scholarship Fund, founded in 1928 to provide scholarships for students in the College of Letters showing the greatest intellectual and moral excellence.

The Henry W. Bragg Fund Scholarships, founded in 1936 by Henry W. Bragg.

The Brandes Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2008 to give deserving students an opportunity to attend Tufts University.

The Dr. and Mrs. William F. Brennan and Family Scholarship, established in 2002 to provide aid to worthy and promising undergraduate students who are determined to be in need of scholarship funds.

The Ron Brinn Scholarship Fund, established in 1999 in honor of Ron Brinn, A'58, Tufts Director of Alumni Relations for sixteen years, to provide financial aid to needy students of the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson and the School of Engineering.

The Nathan and Shirley Brodsky Scholarship, established in 2013 to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences for first-generation students who are naturalized United States citizens.

The Nathan and Shirley Brodsky Scholarship for Tufts in Talloires, established in 2013 to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences. The scholarships will be awarded to first-generation students who are interested in the Tufts in Talloires Program and have never lived in Europe.

The Budd Family Scholarship, established in 1996 by Edward H. Budd, A'55, and his family, to aid juniors and seniors with a GPA of 3.0 or better who have demonstrated involvement in and dedication to enriching campus life at Tufts.

The David W. Burke Fund was established in honor of David W. Burke, A'57, H'09, mentor and friend to many Tufts University students. The fund supports undergraduate scholarships, with a preference for students in communications and media studies.

The Wellington Burnham Fund Scholarships, created by a bequest from Wellington Burnham of the Class of 1931.

The Edith Linwood Bush Scholarship, established during the Second Century Fund campaign by classmates, former students, and friends in honor of Edith Linwood Bush of the Class of 1903, member of the faculty from 1920 to 1952, and dean of Jackson College from 1925 to 1952.

The Richard Perry Bush Scholarships, founded in 1910 by Mrs. Caroline M. Barnard, of Everett, Massachusetts.

The Francis Buttrick Fund for Scholarships, preferably for men from Waltham, Massachusetts.

The Daniel V. Byrne, E'76 Endowed Scholarship in Mechanical Engineering, established in 2012 to support students within the Department of Mechanical Engineering. As a student in Mechanical Engineering, Dan Byrne was inspired by Dr. Fred Nelson, Dr. John Sununu, and other faculty members who introduced him to thermodynamics and Stirling engines. Dan went on to succeed as an engineer and shortly after, an entrepreneur. Dan has been a true example of the Tufts model of active citizenship—changing the world through his career as well as through his personal commitment to the environment, and the charities and businesses he supports with his time, talent and resources. Dan's passion for Mechanical Engineering inspired him to make this gift to support undergraduate scholarship.

The Godfrey Lowell Cabot Scholarship, established in 1951 by the Cabot Carbon Company in honor of Godfrey Lowell Cabot, the income to be used as a yearly scholarship to a deserving student of the School of Engineering.

The Cabot Corporation Scholarship Fund, established in 1955 by Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc., of Boston, the income to be used for scholarship aid for deserving students in any school or department of the university. In making the awards, preference is to be given to an otherwise qualified son or daughter of an employee of Godfrey L. Cabot, Inc., and its subsidiary companies.

The Calder Challenge Scholarship Fund was established in 1996 by the Louis Calder Foundation to provide financial aid for academically promising students from the five boroughs of New York City.

The Calef Permanent Fund, given by Ira C. Calef in 1917 to provide scholarships for young men or women.

The Callahan-Lee Scholarship Fund, established in 1993 to provide scholarships to undergraduate students in need of financial aid with preference given to students from Swampscott and Gardner, Massachusetts, and Windham, New Hampshire.

The Callahan-Lee-Long Endowed Scholarship Fund, established with a gift from the estate of Mr. John T. Lee, Jr., A'50.

The Jeanne A. Carpenter Memorial Scholarship, established in 2007 in memory of Jeanne A. Carpenter, J'74, to further the University's efforts to create an intentional, intellectual and broadly diverse community of scholars.

The John A. Cataldo Scholarship, established in 1989 by Mr. Cataldo, E'46, to provide a full-tuition scholarship to be awarded annually to one or two meritorious students in the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering.

The Centennial Class of 1952 Endowed Scholarship, established in 2004, to be awarded to an undergraduate student, man or woman, from the School of Arts and Sciences or the School of Engineering. Recipients should meet the following criteria: commitment to community service, high academic standing, and demonstrated financial need. It is the hope of the Centennial Class of 1952 that recipients will always be loyal to their alma mater and will respond to the needs of the university by giving back in time and substance.

The Lucille Cesari, J'52, Endowed Scholarship, established in 2000 to provide scholarships to Tufts undergraduate students with financial need.

The Annie, Leon, and Madeline Chalfen Fund, endowed in 1963 for undergraduate scholarships.

The Christina and John Chandris Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 to provide full tuition scholarships to selected students who have demonstrated both outstanding academic ability and the most extensive need for financial assistance in order to enroll at Tufts.

The Chang for Change Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Nicole G. Chang, J'01 and David A. Chang, A'01 to provide financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates, specifically independent students and those who are committed to positively changing their lives.

The Edwin H. Chapin Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1891 by friends of Edwin Hubbell Chapin, D.D., of New York City.

The Ralph Stillman Charles, Jr., Scholarship, established in 1960 by Ralph S. Charles of the Class of 1923 and Mary Grant Charles, Jackson Class of 1920, in memory of their eldest son (1924–1934), for the benefit of any deserving students in any of the three colleges—Liberal Arts, Engineering, or Jackson—at the discretion of the college authorities.

The Kathryn Cassell Chenault 2010 Scholarship Fund, established in 2010, to support undergraduate scholarships that will help achieve the educational benefits of diversity at Tufts. Chenault Scholarships will replace the loan component of the recipients' financial aid package.

The Kathryn Cassell Chenault J'77 Scholarship, established in 2002 to help attract, retain, and prepare a diverse student body who will make important leadership contributions to Tufts and to our global community. The Chenault Scholarship is part of the Jay Pritzker family of scholarships.

The Joseph R. Churchill and Anna Quincy Churchill Scholarship Funds, established in 1971 under the will of Mary C. Churchill to honor her husband and her daughter, Dr. Anna Quincy Churchill, M'17, Assistant Professor of Anatomy Emerita, to provide scholarships to students of biology (preferably botany).

The Charles P. Ciaffone and Lloyd W. Pote Scholarship, established in 1982 by Charles Ciaffone of the Class of 1941 and Lloyd Pote of the Class of 1937, the owners, and other employees of CPC Engineering of Sturbridge, Massachusetts. The income from this fund is to be awarded yearly to a deserving engineering student as determined by the faculty of the School of Engineering.

The Charles L. Clapp Scholarship, established in 2006, to provide financial aid to a student in the junior class who demonstrates superior academic achievement in the field of government or politics.

The Andrew J. Clark Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1891 by Mrs. Abbie B. Clark, of Orange, Massachusetts.

The Class of 1904 Scholarships, founded in 1930 and substantially increased during the Second Century Fund campaign by the men and women of the Class of 1904.

The Class of 1911 Scholarships, awarded from the Class of 1911 Fund.

The Class of 1913 Women's Memorial Scholarship Fund, established in 1925 by the women of the Class of 1913 to be used for Jackson undergraduates who need financial assistance at a time of emergency and need.

The Class of 1919 Scholarship, established at the fiftieth reunion of the Class of 1919 in honor of Dean George S. Miller, A'06. The income from this fund is to be awarded annually to an undergraduate in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson or the School of Engineering in accordance with Tufts's student aid policies.

The Class of 1920 Scholarship Fund, established by the members of the Class of 1920, Liberal Arts, Engineering, and Jackson College, on the occasion of the fiftieth anniversary of their graduation from Tufts. The fund aids deserving undergraduates with demonstrated financial need, as determined by the university's financial aid office. The terms of the Class of 1920 Scholarship Fund stipulate that a woman undergraduate must be among the recipients of the fund's benefaction not less than once every three years.

The Class of 1923 Scholarship Fund, to be awarded as directed by officers of the class.

The Class of 1926 Scholarship, founded in 1951 by the men and women of the Class of 1926, as their twenty-fifth reunion gift to the college, to be awarded in rotation to students in the College of Liberal Arts one year, Jackson College the next year, and the School of Engineering the third year.

The Class of 1928 Scholarship, founded in 1955 by the men and women of the Class of 1928, the income to be awarded to deserving students in Tufts College or Jackson College.

The Class of 1933 Scholarship Fund, established in 1990 by members of the Class of 1933 to provide scholarship funds for future students.

The Class of 1935 Scholarship, established in 1996 by members of the Class of 1935 to provide financial aid to deserving undergraduate students.

The Class of 1939 Memorial Scholarship, established in 1948 by the men and women of the class in memory of their classmates who gave their lives in World War II.

The Class of 1940 Memorial Scholarship, established in 1956 by the men and women of the Class of 1940, the income to be awarded on the joint bases of merit and need to undergraduate students, preference being given to descendants of the Class of 1940 who are otherwise qualified.

The Class of 1943 Scholarship, established in 1996 by members of the Class of 1943 to provide scholarship aid for future Tufts students.

The Class of 1944 Scholarship, established in 2000 by men and women of the Class of 1944 to be awarded annually to an undergraduate in the College of Liberal Arts, Jackson College, or the School of Engineering on the basis of need and merit as shown by outstanding scholarship and qualities of leadership in student and community activities. Preference is given to descendants of the Class of 1944 or other legacies whenever possible.

The Class of 1947 Victor Prather Scholarship Fund, established by the Class of 1947 on the occasion of their twenty-fifth reunion to memorialize a respected friend and classmate. Victor A. Prather, Jr., A'47, M'52, was a flight surgeon assigned to aviation and space medicine research when he lost his life at the end of a high-altitude flight in a strato-lab balloon designed for space equipment testing. He was a scholar devoted to the advancement of knowledge, and he was a leader uncompromising in his ideals. Financial assistance is awarded to students who meet the university's criteria for need and who demonstrate in their studies the same enthusiasm for learning that Victor Prather did in his lifetime.

The Class of 1952 Endowed Scholarship, established in 2004, to be awarded to an undergraduate student, man or woman, from the School of Arts and Sciences or the School of Engineering. Recipients should meet the following criteria: commitment to community service, high academic standing, and demonstrated financial need. It is the hope of the Centennial Class of 1952 that recipients will always be loyal to their alma mater and will respond to the needs of the university by giving back in time and substance.

The Class of 1957 Scholarship, established in 2002, to be awarded to a Tufts undergraduate with good moral character, community service experience, high academic standing, and demonstrated financial need.

The Class of 1958 Scholarship Fund, established in 2003 for the benefit of Tufts students of the Faculty of Arts and Sciences.

The Class of 1959 Scholarship, established in 1984 for the benefit of future generations of Tufts students. This special endowment fund represented one of the major gifts made to Tufts by members of the Class of 1959 on the occasion of their twenty-fifth reunion, and it has been substantially increased by classmates on a continuing basis over the years thereafter. Income from this fund is to be awarded annually on a combined basis of merit and need to one or more deserving undergraduate students in accordance with Tufts financial aid policies, with preference to be given to descendants of the Class of 1959 who are otherwise deemed to be fully qualified.

The Class of 1960 Scholarship, established by members of the Tufts Class of 1960 to provide aid to a deserving student who is an undergraduate.

The Class of 1961 Scholarship, established in 2001 by members of the Tufts Class of 1961 to provide financial aid to worthy and promising students with financial need, with preference to students who have demonstrated service to the community.

The Class of 1962 Scholarship, established in 1962, to provide scholarships to undergraduate students in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences. First preference is given to students who are direct descendants of members of the Class of 1962.

The Class of 1963 Scholarship Fund, established in 2003 in honor of the Class of 1963 and in memory of those who are no longer with us, will be awarded to an undergraduate student who is of good character, with proven academic achievement, a commitment to active citizenship, and demonstrated financial need. The Class of 1963 is especially committed to helping individuals who have overcome significant obstacles in order to attend Tufts University. It is their hope that the recipients of this scholarship will form a lifelong connection with the university and through their service and support become role models for others.

The Class of 1989 Endowed Scholarship was established in 2014 by James Bartlett, A'89, Bradford Bernstein, A'89, Brian Gerson, A'89 and Fotis Hasiotis, A'89 in honor of their 25th Class Reunion, to support financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates.

The Class of 2000 Scholarship, established in 2000 by members of the Class of 2000 to provide scholarships to Tufts undergraduate students with financial need.

The Class of 2002 Scholarship, established in 2008 to provide scholarships to be awarded to one or more worthy and promising students who are determined to be in need of scholarship funds.

The Allan Clemow Scholarship, established in 2007 in honor of Allan Clemow E'65, the Director of Admissions at Tufts University, to support scholarships in the School of Engineering with preference towards students in the Entrepreneurial Leadership Program.

The Henry E. Cobb Scholarship, founded in 1891 by Henry E. Cobb, of Boston.

The Lloyd H. and Ruth M. Coffin Scholarship, established in 1952 by Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd H. Coffin, of Marblehead, Massachusetts.

The Fern and Hersh Cohen Endowed Scholarship fund, established in 2013 to support the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Lisa and Bruce Cohen Scholarship Fund was established in 2015 to support financial aid for Tufts University undergraduate students.

The Monte Cohen Scholarship Fund, established in 1972 in honor and memory of industrialist Monte Cohen, of West Newton, Massachusetts, by his son Leon H. Cohen of the Liberal Arts Class of 1948 and other members of the family. The income each year is distributed to an undergraduate student deemed worthy of such aid by the financial aid office.

The Ricky and Peter Cohen Family Scholarship Fund, established in 2003 as part of the Pritzker Challenge to be used to help Tufts attract, retain, and prepare talented African American, Hispanic American, and Native American students who will make important contributions to Tufts and to our global community.

The Sarah Rebecca and Myer Cohen Memorial Scholarship, established in 1951 in memory of Sarah Rebecca and Myer Cohen by Edward I. Cohen of the Class of 1919, his daughters Sandra and Jacquelyn Cohen, and James Cohen of the Class of 1921.

The Harold E. Collins Scholarship Fund, established by the will of Harold E. Collins, A'17, to assist needy and worthy students.

The Sherwood Collins Scholarship Fund, established in 1990 by an anonymous donor. Awarded to graduate students in drama.

The Conti-Dicken Family Scholarship Fund, established in 2004 to be awarded with preference to female students at Jackson College with limited means who possess high academic potential and a demonstrated commitment to achieving scholastic excellence in the study of arts and sciences.

The Katherine E. Coogan Scholarship, established in 1994 by Ruth E. Coogan in memory of her daughter, Katherine E. Coogan, Class of 1964, to be used for scholarships in economics for native-born Americans.

The Davis Cook Scholarship, founded in 1904 by Davis Cook, of Cumberland, Rhode Island.

The James M. and Emily Cook Scholarship, founded in 1903 by Henrietta J. States, of Boston.

The William Oscar Cornell Scholarship, founded in 1890 By William Oscar Cornell, of Providence, Rhode Island.

Cornfeld Scholars Program, established in 1989 by Dr. Robert M. Cornfeld, D'55, to provide financial assistance to undergraduate students who show exceptional promise to become future biomedical researchers.

The Sanda Countway Scholarship Fund, established by bequest of Sanda Countway, WA 1904. The income from this fund is to be used to provide financial assistance to deserving undergraduate students in Jackson College, the College of Liberal Arts, and/or the School of Engineering of Tufts University.

The Lyn and Paul Courant Endowed Scholarship, established in 2013 to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Cousens Scholarship, founded in 1891 by John E. Cousens, of Brookline, Massachusetts, in the name of John E. and Sara C. Cousens.

The Howard E. Cousins Scholarship, established as a bequest in 1966 by the late Howard E. Cousins, of Arlington, Massachusetts, member of the College of Engineering, Class of 1909. The income from the invested principal shall be used to provide financial aid to students enrolled in the School of Engineering and qualifying for such aid, with preference to be given to residents of Salem and Arlington, Massachusetts.

The Stephen and Bessie Cowey Scholarship, established in 1990 by Thelma Cowey Swain, J'31, to honor her parents and to provide lasting assistance for Tufts students from the state of Maine.

The Annie L. Cox Scholarship Fund, established in 1946.

The Dorothy M. and Charles JJ Cox Endowed Arts and Sciences Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Margo A. Cox, M.D. and Robert F. Gagel, M.D. to support financial aid for undergraduate students in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences.

The George Howland Cox Scholarship, established in 1949 for the benefit of students of high scholastic standing who are in need of financial aid.

The Reverend Austin Crowe Scholarship Fund, established in 1987 in memory of Austin Crowe (brother of Blanche Haslam and father of Austin Crowe, Jr., A'61) to provide funds to aid worthy and needy students.

The Margaret Smith Cullen, J'46 Endowed Scholarship, established in 2008, to be awarded to undergraduate students in any class at the University. The scholarship may be continued up to four years as long as the recipients remain in good standing.

The Waldo O. Cummings Memorial Scholarship Fund, which gives preference to residents of Tyngsborough, Massachusetts.

The William M. Currier Scholarship Fund, established under the will of William M. Currier, of Quincy, Massachusetts. Preference given to residents of Georgetown or Danvers, Massachusetts.

The James O. Curtis Scholarship, founded in 1915 by Betsy B. Curtis, of Medford, Massachusetts.

The Isabella C. Cutler Scholarship Fund, established in 1985, in memory of Isabella Cutler, J'14, of Lexington, Massachusetts. Scholarships from the income of this fund are given to aid needy students, as requested by the donor.

The Florence D. Cwirko Scholarship, established in 1978 in memory of Florence D. Cwirko, J'47, by her mother Mrs. Julia Cwirko. Income is to be used to provide financial assistance to students in the undergraduate college.

The Elizabeth Slade Dalrymple Scholarship, established in 2008, by a bequest from Elizabeth Dalrymple.

The Boryana Damyanova International Students Scholarship Fund, established in 2006 to honor the memory of Boryana Damyanova, Class of 2006. The fund will provide scholarships for highly qualified international students who need financial assistance to be able to enroll at Tufts.

The Benjamin H. Davis Scholarship, founded in 1897 by the Reverend B. H. Davis, of Weymouth, Massachusetts, for the benefit of students of the College of Liberal Arts who are preparing to enter the Christian ministry.

The Moses Day Scholarship, founded in 1880 by Moses Day, of Roxbury, Massachusetts.

The Stephen G. Demirjian Scholarship, established in 2001 to provide aid to needy students of Armenian heritage first and secondarily to students of Greek heritage.

The Devejian Family Scholarship Fund, established in 2010 by a bequest from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Devejian, E'44, to provide scholarships for needy students in the Tufts School of Engineering.

The Dewar Scholarship, established in 1990 by the Dewar Foundation. Preference in awarding the scholarship is given to graduates of Oneonta Senior High School, Oneonta, New York.

The Cora Polk Dewick Scholarship, established during the Second Century Fund campaign by classmates and friends in honor of Cora Polk Dewick of the Class of 1896, Alumni Trustee 1920–1940.

The Jeannie Diefenderfer Scholarship, established in 2008 to support scholarships with the School of Engineering.

The Leonard A. DiLorenzo, E'66 and Anmarie P. Garceau Endowed Scholarship Fund, created in 2010 to provide financial aid for undergraduates in the School of Engineering, with the hope that this scholarship would encourage female students to pursue engineering studies at Tufts.

The Catherine P. and Arland A. Dirlam Scholarship, established in 1949 by Catherine Price Dirlam, Class of 1927, and Arland A. Dirlam, of the Class of 1926, the income to be awarded in alternate years to a student in Jackson College and to a student in the School of Engineering.

The Leon E. Dix Memorial Scholarship.

The Frank C. Doble Scholarship, established in 1997 in memory of Frank Currier Doble, founder of the Doble Engineering Company, and a recipient of two Tufts degrees: a bachelor of science in electrical engineering in 1911, and an honorary doctor of science in 1962. The income is awarded to worthy undergraduate students in the Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering.

The Doherty Family Scholarship, awarded to students of high leadership potential and a desire to give back to Tufts University in the future.

The Dolan Family Endowed Scholarship, created in 2005 to support undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences and the School of Engineering. The scholarships will be awarded to promote the achievement of the educational benefits of diversity at Tufts.

The Abraham and Marianna Dranetz Endowed Scholarship, established in 2004 to provide scholarship to students in the Tufts School of Engineering who demonstrate financial need and high academic achievement. Preference is given to students enrolled in biomedical research programs in the engineering school.

The John Druker and Bertram A. Druker Scholarship Fund, the income to be used for scholarships or loans as determined by the director of the Office of Financial Aid.

The Priscilla N. Dunne Scholarship Fund, established in 1980 by Ms. Dunne, J'75, for students demonstrating need. Preference is given to those majoring in psychology.

The Elizabeth and Maxwell W. Dybiec Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 1999 to be used for educational and scholarship purposes.

The William F. Eastwood A'65 Scholarship, established on the occasion of his retirement in 2002, in honor of Bill Eastwood, A'65, who worked in the Tufts Financial Aid Office for thirty-four years and who served as Director of Financial Aid for fifteen of those years. Preference shall be given to students with financial need from the North Shore of Massachusetts or the Upper Valley of Vermont and New Hampshire.

The George W. Eaton Fund, established in 1942 by bequest of George W. Eaton, of Peabody, Massachusetts, the income to be expended in aiding poor and worthy students to secure an education at Tufts College.

The Carlos P. Echeverria Scholarship, established in 1951 by Carlos P. Echeverria of the Class of 1912.

The Thomas R. B. Edmands and Abbie Whittmore Edmands Scholarship Fund, established in 1973 by Anne Edmands Hall in memory of her parents.

The Eliot-Pearson Scholarship, awarded to a student major in the Eliot-Pearson Department of Child Study and Human Development.

The Edward A. Ellis Scholarship, established in 2008 to support promising and deserving students. The scholarship will be awarded to undergraduates in any class and may be continued for up to four years as long as the recipients remain in good standing.

The Susan F. Emerson Scholarship, established by provision in the will of Susan F. Emerson, of Boston. To be awarded annually to a student in Tufts College who attains distinction in athletics as well as in scholarship.

The Frederick J. Emmett Scholarship, established in 1991 to benefit students in the Tufts School of Engineering.

The Environmental Engineering Scholarship, established in 1990 by Martha M. Wyckoff, E'77, to provide scholarships for undergraduate engineering students who are pursuing an interdisciplinary approach to the study of the environment.

The David R. and Betsy Banks Epstein Endowed Scholarship, established in 2005 to provide need-based financial aid to Tufts undergraduate students studying theatre.

The Steven B. and Deborah Epstein Endowed Scholarship, established in 2006 in support of the Pritzker Challenge and to increase diversity on the Tufts campus.

The Harry Esses Scholarship, established in 2008, to provide need-based undergraduate scholarships for African American, Hispanic American and Native American students in the School of Arts and Sciences and the School of Engineering.

The James H. Farrell, Jr., Scholarship, founded in 1986 by James H. Farrell, Jr., of the Engineering Class of 1959, for the benefit of deserving students in need of financial aid. Income from the fund is to be awarded annually to one or more undergraduates in the College of Liberal Arts, Jackson College, or the School of Engineering. Where feasible, the scholarship will be awarded with preference given to graduates of Boston College High School.

The Meade S. and Robert W. Fasciano, A'56 Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2009, to support undergraduate Tufts students who are qualified to receive financial aid. Preference is given to students who are active in extracurricular activities on campus and who are residents of Somerville, Massachusetts.

The Wesley J. Fastiff, A'54 and Bonnie B. Fastiff, '60 Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 in support of financial aid in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Wilton B. and Helen R. Fay Memorial Fund, established in 1979 by Helen R. Fay, the income of which shall be used to assist deserving needy students of Jackson College in acquiring a college education; preference to be given to young women whose homes shall be in Middlesex County, Massachusetts.

The Matthew A. Feldman Family Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 by Matthew Feldman, A'85, to benefit students in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Robert L. Feldman Scholarship, established in 1989 by Mr. Feldman, A'69, to aid worthy students in need of assistance in meeting their educational costs.

The Felton Family Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 by Gregg J. Felton, A'92, and Marla J. Felton, J'92, to benefit undergraduates in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Ferrelli Family Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Richard Ferrelli, A'85. This scholarship supports financial aid for undergraduates in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences, with a preference for first-generation college students.

The Ricardo and Dora Ferrelli Memorial Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Richard Ferrelli, A'85 and Maria Ferrelli Giatrelis, E'89 to support financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates. Richard and Maria established this fund to memorialize their immigrant parents who inspired generational advancement through education and it is their interest to support students who are first-generation college students and are the children of immigrants naturalized as U.S. citizens and permanently residing in the United States.

The Edward W. Fickett Scholarship, established in 1963 by bequest of Bertha D. Chellis in memory of the late Edward W. Fickett of the Class of 1896, the income to be awarded to a deserving student.

The Fickett Scholarship, established in 1944 under the will of the late Edward W. Fickett, of Somerville, as "The Fickett Scholarship in memory of my sister, M. Grace Fickett of the Class of 1896, the income of this fund to be awarded annually to a deserving student, either male or female, who is majoring in the Department of Education.”

The Benjamin and Alice Finn Memorial Scholarship Fund, established in memory of the parents of Philip H. Finn of the Class of 1942 and Alvan D. Finn of the Class of 1945. Income from this fund is to be awarded on the basis of merit and need to an undergraduate, and every fourth year to a Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy student.

The Henry L. and Madeline E. Fischer Centennial Class Scholarship, established in 2014 to support scholarships for the School of Engineering, with first preference to electrical engineering majors.

The Fisher Veterans Scholarship, established in 2008 to provide financial aid for students who have served in the United States military.

The Ella Bowker Flagg, Class of 1905 Scholarship Fund, established in 1972 under the will of Ella Bowker Flagg of the Class of 1905 for the benefit of students in Jackson College.

The James B. Flaws Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 by James Flaws, E'71. The fund will leverage financial access for students majoring in the Civil and Environmental Engineering Department while furthering the school's goal of positioning engineering students as future problem solvers, project leaders, communicators and ethical citizens of a global community.

The Austin B. Fletcher Scholarship, founded in 1905 by Austin Barclay Fletcher, of New York City.

The Morris and Freda Fraidin Scholarship Fund, established in 1986 by Stephen Fraidin in honor of his parents, to aid worthy students in the arts and sciences.

The Frischkorn Family Scholarship Fund, established in 2003 to provide financial aid to worthy and promising undergraduates who are actively engaged in the study of German or Economics.

The Volney Sewell Fulham Scholarships for women of Jackson College.

The Parisis J. and Bessie Georgian Student Aid Fund, established in 1971 by gift of Parisis J. Georgian, to aid undergraduate students of Tufts University.

The Rob and Lisi Gheewalla Endowed Scholarship Fund, created in 2010 by Robert R. Gheewalla, A'89, and Ilisa C. Criss, J'88, to benefit undergraduates in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Leona and John Ghublikian Educational Fund, established in 1989 by Leona and John R. Ghublikian, E'39, to provide scholarships to deserving students enrolled in the Department of Chemical and Biological Engineering.

The Luther Gilbert Scholarship, founded in 1902 by Mrs. Luther Gilbert, of Roxbury, Massachusetts.

The Mary and Luther Gilbert Scholarships, founded in 1902 and 1904 by Mrs. Mary C. Knight, of Roxbury, Massachusetts, for the benefit of women students.

The Gerald R. Gill Memorial Scholarship, established in 2008 in memory of Gerald Gill, Professor of History at Tufts University, to provide financial aid to increase the diversity of the Tufts campus.

The Calmon and Hortense Ginsberg Scholarship, founded in 1964 by Mr. and Mrs. Calmon Ginsberg, of New York City, for the benefit of worthy students in Tufts University.

The Nancy Glass Endowed Scholarship, established in 2008 for support of undergraduates in the Tufts School of Arts and Sciences.

The Gleason Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2007, to further the University's highest priorities of providing financial aid to students in need.

The Herbert D. Goff Scholarship Fund, established in 1944 under the will of the late Herbert D. Goff, of Cranston, Rhode Island.

The Dr. James Laurence Golden and Helen Murphy Golden Scholarship Fund, established in 1982 by Maurene L. Golden of the Class of 1959, the income to be used to aid undergraduate students of proven academic promise and dedication in the arts and sciences, who have also displayed exceptional leadership and service within their hometowns or communities.

The Martha Goldthwaite Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1890 by Willard Goldthwaite, of Salem, Massachusetts.

The Philip J. Gomez and Lonnia Gomez Horn Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2013 by Lonnia Horn, J'67, and Charles Horn to provide financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates majoring in mathematics.

The Edward T. and Claire Gordon Endowed Scholarship Fund for Arts and Sciences, established by the Estate of Edward T. and Claire Gordon. This fund will provide financial aid for undergraduates in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences.

The Ellen R. Gordon Endowed Scholarship, established in 2008 in support of financial aid for Tufts undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences majoring in the sciences.

The Gorra Family Scholarship, established in 2002 to provide a scholarship award to a deserving student each year.

The Alfred J. and Beverly Green Scholarship, founded in 1961 by Alfred J. and Beverly Green, of New York, the income to be awarded to an undergraduate or graduate student who needs financial aid.

The Mary Sheldon Green Scholarship, established in 2002 to provide financial aid to Tufts' undergraduate students.

The Harold Greisman Scholarship, established in 2008 to endow a fund at Tufts to support scholarships in the School of Arts and Sciences in perpetuity.

The Mortimer Griffith Scholarship Fund, established to provide financial aid to needy students in the School of Engineering.

The Willis Wentworth Griffiths Scholarship, established in 1951 by William H. Griffiths of the Class of 1928, in memory of his father, Willis Wentworth Griffiths of the Class of 1899, to be awarded on the basis of need to a senior who has demonstrated leadership in worthwhile extracurricular activities.

The Mary L. Groce Scholarship, founded in 1906 by Mary L. Groce, of Roxbury, Massachusetts.

The Morris H. and Ethel M. Gudwin Scholarship Fund, established in 1999 by the will of Morris H. Gudwin.

The Emily E. Guild Scholarship, funded by the donor, of Brattleboro, Vermont, in 1964.

Marcy and Robert Haber Scholarship Fund, established in 1997 by Marcy and Robert Haber, E'79, G'80, to provide scholarships to students in the School of Engineering with immigrant parents.

The David N. Hadad Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1985 by his family and friends from the Class of 1980. Preference is given to students in the School of Engineering who come from greater Lawrence, Massachusetts.

The Frank Oliver Hall Memorial Scholarship, established in 1954 by the people of the Universalist Church of the Divine Paternity in the city of New York, in memory of Reverend Frank Oliver Hall, D.D., of the Class of 1884, Minister of the Universalist Church of the Divine Paternity from 1902 to 1918 and from 1929 to 1938, Professor of Homiletics in Tufts School of Religion from 1918 to 1929. The income of this fund is to be awarded annually, preference being given to a graduate student who is a member of the Church of the Divine Paternity.

The William J. Halligan Scholarship, established in 1953 by William J. Halligan of the Class of 1923, to be awarded annually to worthy students in the School of Engineering.

The Sharon Halverson Scholarship, established in 2008 to provide scholarships to undergraduates in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Ronald E. Halvorsen Scholarship Fund, established in 1988 to provide scholarships to deserving students in the School of Engineering.

The George H. Hammond Memorial Scholarship, established in 1999 by colleagues, friends, and former students of Professor G. H. Hammond, E'35, in honor of his loyal service to Tufts for over 40 years as an outstanding teacher and mentor. The income is awarded to worthy undergraduates in the Department of Electrical Engineering and Computer Science.

The Roland Hammond Scholarship Fund, established in 1978 by Dr. Roland Hammond, A'98, H'39, in memory of his father, Roland Hammond, Class of 1868. Income shall be used only toward the payment of tuition or other charges of such worthy student or students as the officers of the college may select.

The Edward W. and Patricia C. Hanley Scholarship Fund, founded in 1983 to aid an appreciative undergraduate student at Tufts University.

The Hervey A. Hanscom Scholarship, established in 1954 by Hervey A. Hanscom, of Medford, Massachusetts. The income is to be used each year to aid a deserving boy, preferably a country boy from the state of Maine and/or the children of employees of Hervey A. Hanscom.

The Harold and Ruth Haskell Scholarships, established in 1951 by Harold and Ruth Sibley Haskell, both of the Class of 1906. The income from the fund is to be given to deserving students from the states of Delaware, Maine, and Massachusetts, in this order if possible.

The Marian Titus Hayford Scholarship Fund, established in 1977 by the late Mrs. F. Leslie Hayford, a graduate of the Women of Arts, Class of 1902, the income to be used for scholarships to one or more undergraduate women.

The Monte R. and Jane Haymon Endowed Scholarship, established in 2006 by Monte R. Raymon, E'59, and Jane Kraft Haymon, J'60, to benefit students with financial need in both the School of Engineering and the School of Arts and Sciences.

The William Randolph Hearst Endowed Scholarship, established in 1994 to provide scholarships for participants in training programs at the Lincoln Filene Center.

The Herbert and Elaine N. Heller Student Scholarship Fund, established in 2003 to benefit underprivileged Jewish students at the School of Arts and Sciences and the School of Engineering.

The Heptorean Club Scholarship, founded in 1898 by the Heptorean Club of Somerville, and including the Gerta Colby Donnelly Fund. Awarded annually to a graduate of the Somerville High School who is already attending Tufts.

The Captain Charles C. Hersey Scholarship, established in 1989 under the will of Captain Hersey, A'30, to aid qualified students at Tufts College.

The Morris and Sid Heyman Memorial Fund, founded by Mrs. Sid L. Heyman in 1980 in memory of her late husband, Morris Heyman, Class of 1918. Awards are made to deserving students in the undergraduate electrical engineering program.

The Frederick Sherman Hickok Scholarship, established in 1963 under the will of Conde Wilson Hickok for the benefit of engineering students.

The Martin J. Higgins Memorial Scholarship Fund, established in 1987 by William Dougherty of the Class of 1960, in memory of Martin J. Higgins, student leader, outstanding athlete, enthusiastic alumnus, and respected colleague. The income from this fund is to be awarded annually to a deserving undergraduate student in the College of Liberal Arts or Jackson College.

The Clara Bell Hight Scholarship Fund, established under the provisions of the Clara Bell Hight Trust as a permanent scholarship fund. The income generated from the principal is to be used for financial assistance to needy and deserving students enrolled in Tufts University.

The Samuel Greeley Hilborn Scholarship, founded in 1940 under the will of Grace Hilborn Webster.

The Hill Faculty/Staff Scholarship Fund, established through payroll deductions from Tufts faculty and staff to provide financial aid to needy undergraduate students.

The Ralph and Rachel G. Hill Scholarship, established through the estate of Rachel G. Hill in memory of her parents, to provide financial aid to deserving students in the Faculty of Arts, Sciences, and Engineering with preference given to undergraduates studying in the fields of engineering or biology.

The Robert W. Hill Scholarship, established in 1955 by the late Judge Robert W. Hill of the Class of 1904, for many years a trustee of Tufts College.

The Israel Hoffman Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2015 by Lesley Spector Heller, J'88 and Michael Heller to provide financial aid for undergraduate students in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences.

The Warren Nesbit Holbrook Memorial Scholarship, founded in memory of his brother by Charles R. Holbrook of Framingham, Massachusetts, in 1971.

The Robert Hollister Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 in honor of Dean Hollister upon his retirement as the Dean of the Tisch College, to provide need-based aid to undergraduate students.

The Hopkins Family Scholarship, established in 2012 by Nancy H. McManus, J'52. The purpose of this fund is to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences, with first preference being given to students who come from Vermont, or northern New England, or the greater San Francisco area.

The Clarence P. and Henry C. Houston Scholarship, established in 1953 by classmates, friends, and former students of Clarence P. Houston of the Class of 1914 and Henry C. Houston of the Class of 1910.

The Albert S. Hovannesian Scholarship, endowed in 1978 by Albert S. Hovannesian, a graduate of the College of Engineering, Class of 1946, to provide financial assistance to students in the undergraduate colleges. His own personal understanding of the special problems which under-financed students and their families experience is the reason why he chose to fund this scholarship. Preference is given to needy students who are industrious and who also work part-time to help defray their educational expenses.

The Hovannesian-Howorth Scholarship Fund, established in 1989 in honor of Mrs. Claire L. Howorth of Stoneham, Massachusetts, to provide aid to electrical/ mechanical engineering students whose particular interests are in microwave technology degree work.

The William H. and Arlene E. Howard Scholarship, established in 2009 for support of students in the Music Department, Tufts University College of Liberal Arts and Jackson.

The Howland Scholarship, established in 1865 from the income of the bequest of Edwin Howland, of South Africa.

The Paul O. Huntington Scholarship (E'13), given to a student in the academic or engineering program in memory of the husband of Harriet S. Huntington.

The Hunton Scholarship, founded in 1921 by Mrs. Gertrude Hunton Sweet, of Attleboro, Massachusetts, for the benefit of women.

The Lydia Glidden Hutchinson Scholarship Fund, founded in 1985 by Lydia Glidden, Jackson '28, for deserving women attending Jackson College.

The Hye-Hovannesian Scholarship, endowed in 1981 by Albert S. Hovannesian of the Class of 1946. Preference is given to undergraduates of Armenian-American descent.

The Ingalls Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2012 by Edmund F., A'78, A'09P and Margaret D. Ingalls, J'81, A'09P, to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences.

The International Board of Advisors Endowed Scholarship, established in 2004 to help the university in its efforts to facilitate and sustain a socioeconomically diverse international student population at Tufts University.

The Ives Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1966 by Harriet Raillon Ives of Woodstock, New York, in memory of herfamily.

Haig Jafarian Memorial Scholarship Fund, established in 1992 by Ethel J. Duffett and Dana Paul Bowie in memory of their beloved brother and uncle, Haig Jafarian. The income is to provide scholarships to students in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson, with preference to students of Armenian ancestry who have expressed interest in the course known as "A Survey of Armenian History."

The Paul and Alice Darakjian Jafarian Memorial Scholarship, established in 1990 by Ethel J. Duffett in memory of her parents, to provide scholarship assistance to students in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson. Preference will be given to students of Armenian ancestry who have expressed an interest in Armenian studies.

The Jaffe Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2013 by Stephen B. Jaffe, E'64, A'97P, and Wilhelmina Jaffe, A'97P, to provide financial aid for undergraduates in the Tufts University School of Engineering, with a preference for chemical and biological engineering majors.

The Christine Jankowski Graduate Fellowship for Romance Languages, established in memory of Christine Jankowski of the Class of 1970, awarded to a graduate student in the field of romance languages.

The Japha Family Scholarship, established in 2001 to provide scholarships to students with a record of above average academic performance and contributions of earnest service to and/or beyond the Tufts community.

The Jephson Educational Trust Endowment Fund, established in 1999 for aid to undergraduate students who show exceptional promise but whose families are particularly disadvantaged.

The Edgar N. and Faith A. Johnson A'54, J'54, Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2013 by Eric C. and Regina Johnson to provide need-based financial aid for Tufts University undergraduate students.

The Raymond L. Johnson Scholarship Fund, established in 1999 by the will of Raymond L. Johnson.

The Peter and Clare Kalustian Scholarship, established in 2008, to provide scholarships to mechanical and chemical engineering students, with a preference to be given to students of Armenian descent.

The Karol Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2013 to support scholarships for undergraduate students in the Schools of Arts and Sciences and Engineering who have high integrity and an entrepreneurial character; creative original thinkers; constructive innovators; selfless contributors to the Tufts community.

The Arnold S. Katz Scholarship. A member of the class of 1963, Mr. Katz founded this scholarship in 1981 to aid students in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson. Preference is given to students from York County, Maine.

The Andrew B. Kaufman Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2013 by Dr. Andrew B. Kaufman, A'61, J'86P, J'92P to provide financial aid for undergraduates in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences.

The Kava Family – Goldman Sachs Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 to support financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates. This scholarship is a gift of Goldman Sachs Gives at the recommendation of Lisa D. Kava, J'89 and Alan S. Kava.

The Elsa Orent Keiles Scholarship Fund, established in 1996 by the will of Elsa Orent Keiles, J'25.

The Michael T. Kelleher Scholarship, established in 1951 in honor of Michael T. Kelleher, of Boston, the income to aid each year an outstanding young man who needs help in order to go to college.

The Andrew P. Kerr/Adam F. Kerr Scholarship, established in 1988 by Andrew P. Kerr, Class of 1960. This scholarship benefits students who are in need of financial aid and who are in good academic standing in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson.

The KF Endowed Scholarship, established in 2013 by Patrice S. Karp, J'90, and David C. Karp to provide financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates. The scholarship is representative of the Karps' and the university's shared goal to increase access to education to stellar but financially challenged students from diverse backgrounds.

The Kier-Wain Family Scholarship, established in 2000 to provide financial aid to Tufts students with financial need. First preference in selection will be given to an undergraduate woman of Cuban-American heritage. If a Cuban-American woman is not available for the scholarship, preference will be given to a woman of other Hispanic heritage.

Killam Canadian Fund, established in 1997 in memory of Isaac Walton Killam of Nova Scotia by his Massachusetts sisters through their testamentary trusts, to help Canadian students with limited financial circumstances enroll at Tufts University.

The Elson T. Killam Memorial Scholarship Fund, established by a bequest made in trust in memory of the late Elson T. Killam, a 1922 graduate of the College of Engineering. The income from the principal is to be used for general scholarship needs of the university.

Kimball University Scholarship, established in 1994 by David N. Kimball, A'68, to provide financial aid to students of high achievement who show promise of future success.

The Kindler-Sullivan Scholarship, established in 2008, to support the university's efforts to create an intentional, intellectual, and broadly diverse community of scholars.

The Kline Family Scholarship, established in 2013 by Douglas and Susan Kline, E'84, A'13P, to support financial aid for students participating in the Bridge to Liberal Arts Success at Tufts (BLAST) program.

The Dr. Barbara Knight-Meyers Scholarship, established in 1963 by Dr. and Mrs. Edward R. Knight. This scholarship is to provide financial aid to a deserving student in Jackson College.

The George T. Knight Memorial Scholarship, established in 1951 by classmates, former students, friends, and family in memory of George Thompson Knight of the class of 1872, professor in the Crane Theological School from 1883 to 1910, member of the faculty 1875–1910.

The Mabel Hoyle Knipe Scholarship Fund, established in 1998 from the estate of Mabel Hoyle Knipe, J'28, with preference given to graduates of Fairhaven High School.

The Robert A. Kolankiewicz Scholarship Fund, established in loving memory by the family, classmates, and friends of the late Robert A. Kolankiewicz, Liberal Arts graduate of the Class of 1952 and husband of Cynthia (Reynolds) Kolankiewicz Foss, Jackson College, Class of 1953. The scholarship income is to benefit deserving students participating in a Tufts ROTC program in the Navy or Marine Corps in that order. If no ROTC student qualifies for the award in any given year, it will be given to deserving undergraduates in the College of Liberal Arts or Jackson College.

The Kovler Family Scholarship Fund, established in 1987 by the Blum-Kovler Foundation at the request of Jonathan and Peter Kovler, for the benefit of undergraduate students in need of financial assistance.

The Krakoff Family Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Reed D. Krakoff, A'86, A'17P to support financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates.

The Robert L. Krakoff Memorial Endowed Scholarship, established in 2008. The scholarship benefits students earning a minor degree in Entrepreneurial Leadership Studies and intending to pursue entrepreneurship in the future.

The Frieda Kress Scholarship, established in 2006 to provide need-based undergraduate financial aid to promote diversity at Tufts.

The Michael Kuhn Memorial Financial Aid Fund, established in 2001 to provide aid to Tufts students with financial need.

The Carolyn Guber Langelier Scholarship, established in 2008 to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences, in order to increase the diversity of the Tufts student body.

The Landsberger Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2007 to support scholarships to help achieve the educational benefits of diversity in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Rosewell B. Lawrence Scholarship, founded in 1922 by Rosewell B. Lawrence, of Medford, for scholarships and loans for worthy students. Preference is given to graduates of Medford High School already attending Tufts.

The Dr. Howard L. and Mary McCarthy Leary Scholarship Fund, established in 1987 by Mrs. Leary for qualified premedical students in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson.

The Lebovitz Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2008, to support scholarships within the University and to increase the diversity of the Tufts undergraduate student body.

The Jack and Lorraine Lee University Scholarship, established in 2001 to provide financial aid to needy undergraduate students who are residents of New Hampshire, with preference to students who are in their second year of employment at a New Hampshire golf course.

The Leibowitz Family Endowed Scholarship Fund, created in 2010 by Dr. Steven R. Leibowitz, A'79, to benefit undergraduates in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Maud Amelia Leighton Scholarship Gift, the income from a Trust Fund established by George A. Leighton, of Los Angeles, California, for the benefit of engineering students.

The Henry Leir International Scholarship, established in 1999 to provide financial aid for outstanding Tufts undergraduate students who wish to study abroad or who demonstrate commitment to the study of international affairs.

The Allen and Eleanor Lester Scholarship, established by a bequest in 2009 to benefit undergraduate students at Tufts University.

The Alvin Levin Scholarship, established in 1994 to provide scholarships to women of color enrolled in the Urban and Environmental Policy program.

The Louis Levin Scholarship Fund, a scholarship fund established in 1961 by William A. Levin of the Class of 1943 in memory of his father. Income from the fund provides financial aid for undergraduates, with preference given to students majoring in one of the sciences.

The Jon A. Levy Endowed Scholarship, established in 2012 by Jon A. Levy, E83 to support financial aid for Tufts undergraduate students in the School of Engineering.

The Blanche M. Lewis Scholarship, established by Gerald Lewis of the Class of 1954 in honor of his mother, awarded annually with preference for a young woman showing promise in literature or fine arts, who would be unable to attend Tufts without financial assistance.

The Frank T. Lewis Scholarship Fund, which benefits engineering students with preference to those majoring in mechanical engineering.

The Freda Lewis Scholarship, established in 2002 to provide scholarships for students attending Jackson College, preference being given to students who are members of or affiliated with a Universalist Church.

The Leo Rich Lewis Memorial Scholarship, established in 1950 by classmates, former students, family, and friends in memory of Leo Rich Lewis of the Class of 1887, Fletcher Professor of Music and member of the faculty from 1892 to 1945. Preference is given to students majoring in music.

The Jacob Lewiton Scholarship, established in 2000 by bequest of Jacob Lewiton, Trustee Emeritus. The scholarship fund is for needy students who commute to Tufts College. It is the hope of the family that further contributions will be made from time to time to this scholarship fund.

The Dr. Hersh W. Libo and Mrs. Libby Libo Scholarship Fund, established in 2013 by Dr. Hersh and Mrs. Libby Libo in honor of their parents Louis and Betty Libo and Meye and Yetta Barolsky.

The Edwin A. Locke Scholarship, established under the will of Edwin A. Locke of the Engineering Class of 1915, the income to be used to award scholarships to engineering students.

The William L. Locke Scholarship, established in 1961 by Mrs. William L. Locke in memory of her husband of the Class of 1900. The income from this gift is to provide financial aid to a junior or senior in the Department of Civil and Environmental Engineering.

The Jerome T. Loeb Scholarship, established in 1989 by Mr. Loeb, A'62, and awarded annually to an undergraduate, with preference for students from St. Louis, Missouri, and surrounding communities.

The Loomis Scholarship Fund, founded in 1985 in memory of Samuel Loomis, A'15, and his wife Bernice C. Loomis. Seventy-five percent of the annual income is to be used for scholarships, and the remainder is to be added to the principal of the fund annually.

The Loulakis Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2007 by Michael Loulakis, E'76, to provide need-based financial aid for juniors and seniors in the School of Engineering who plan to pursue a career in law or public policy related to the E & C industry. Preference will be given to Civil Engineering students who have demonstrated high academic achievement and leadership.

The Lawrence Loventhal Endowed Scholarship, established in 2008 in support of financial aid for Tufts undergraduate students of the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Norman E. and Marjorie W. MacCuspie Scholarship, established in 1981 to provide financial aid to qualified men and women at Tufts College and Jackson College.

The Frances Booth MacGowan Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 1999, with preference that awards from the fund be granted to female students in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson.

The Elmore I. and Etta P. MacPhie Scholarship, established in 1956 by Etta Phillips MacPhie of the Class of 1913 in memory of her husband, Elmore I. MacPhie, of the Class of 1911, the income to be used for the benefit of deserving students in the College of Liberal Arts or Jackson College.

The Leslie and Bruce Male University Scholars Fund, established in 1990 by Leslie and Bruce Male, A'63, to provide financial aid to students of high achievement who show promise of future success.

The Manogue Family Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Joseph M. and Jeanne M. Manogue, A'15P, to provide financial aid for undergraduates in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences.

The Frank Marcucella Scholarship, established in 1953 by Frank Marcucella, of Medford, Massachusetts.

The Nathan Margolis, A'31, G'34 Memorial Scholarship, established in 2005 by Esther Margolis to promote excellence in teacher training. The Margolis Fund will be awarded annually to one or more students engaged in the study of Education, with a preference for students pursuing a Master of Arts in Teaching degree.

The Myron W. Marr Scholarship, established in 1956 by Dr. Myron W. Marr of the Class of 1904 and the Medical School Class of 1907.

The Laurence K. Marshall Scholarship, established in 1977. This scholarship exists to help others fulfill their educational objectives while encouraging them to explore and to excel. Awards are made annually to students in the School of Engineering who demonstrate academic excellence, who have financial need, and who have areas of interest and accomplishment outside of their major fields of study.

The Marvin Scholarship, established in 1952 by Reignold Kent Marvin, of Boston, Massachusetts. The income of this fund is to be used for the benefit of descendants of Thomas E. O. Marvin, or any student excelling in scholarship and athletics, in that order.

The Arthur E. Mason Memorial Scholarship, established in 1954 by Mrs. Arthur E. Mason, of Newton, Massachusetts, in memory of her husband, Arthur E. Mason, for many years treasurer and trustee of Tufts College. The income from this fund is to be awarded annually to a student residing in New England.

The David Lee Maulsby Memorial Scholarship, established in 1951 by classmates, former students, family, and friends in memory of David Lee Maulsby and the Class of 1887. Dr. Maulsby was professor of Oratory and English Literature from 1891 to 1910.

The Wallace Mayo Scholarship, founded in 1925 by Wallace Mayo, of Dayton, Ohio.

The Edward J. McCabe Scholarship, established in 1994 to provide scholarships for worthy students attending the School of Engineering.

The Brendan P. McCarthy Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Brendan P. McCarthy, A'85 to provide financial aid for undergraduate students in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences.

The Kathryn A. McCarthy, J'45 Endowed Scholarship, established in 2002 to provide scholarships to deserving and financially needy undergraduates who have good scholastic achievement as well as qualities of leadership and citizenship within the community.

The Kathryn A. McCarthy Special Endowed Scholarship, established in 2004 as part of the Pritzker Challenge. The scholarship will increase the diversity of the student body of current or prospective students within the Schools of Arts, Sciences and Engineering, with preference given to the students of the North Cambridge High School, Cambridge, MA.

The Sarah Nelson McFarlane Scholarship, established in 1959. To be awarded to a member of any class in Jackson College who, in the opinion of the dean or other qualified person, is worthy and in need of financial assistance.

The McMahon Memorial Fund, established by the friends and family of William A. McMahon, Esq., in his memory. The fund provides scholarships to undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Jean Griswold Mead Scholarship, established in 1968 in memory of Mrs. Leonard C. Mead by her family and friends.

The Eva Mela Scholarship, established in 2012 by Thomas Mela, A'65, J'96P, and Elizabeth Mela, J'66, J'96P, in memory of Eva Mela, A'65P. The purpose of this fund is to support financial aid for Tufts undergraduate students accepted into the School of Arts and Sciences' Bridge to Liberal Arts Success at Tufts program (BLAST). This scholarship will help to provide the support, resources and opportunities necessary for BLAST scholars to achieve academic excellence, and to actively contribute to their communities inside and outside of the University's campus.

The Memorials Scholarship, established in 1956 to provide suitable recognition of contributions made in memory of beloved Tufts people. Income from this fund is used for scholarships for needy students.

The Alex Mendell Memorial Scholarship, awarded annually to a sophomore or junior who, through his or her leadership in a variety of campus activities, brings together students representing a broad spectrum of the community. Like the student in whose memory the award is made, the recipient should demonstrate a generosity of spirit and character that both contribute to the self esteem of others and to their love of Tufts.

The Richard Mergendahl Memorial Scholarship, established in 1951 by classmates, friends, and family in memory of Richard Mergendahl of the Class of 1944.

Guy Rindge and Alice Barbour Merrill Scholarship, established in 1997 to provide financial aid for undergraduate students.

The Merrin Family Scholarship, established in 1997 to provide financial aid to students from the five boroughs of the City of New York who demonstrate academic promise and financial need.

The Frank Merritt Scholarship. Preference will be given to direct descendants of Mr. Frank Merritt of the Class of 1879, founder of the scholarship. Next in preference shall be some worthy student of the engineering school. For each recipient the founder has this message: "Loyalty and patriotism are akin and are noble qualities. It is hoped that the persons receiving benefits from this scholarship will always be true and loyal to their Alma Mater, and if fortune should smile upon them at some future time they will respond to the needs of the college."

The Robert W. and Gladys S. Meserve Scholarship Fund, established in 1995 in memory of Robert W. and Gladys S. Meserve by family and friends to provide financial aid to students from Waltham High School and Medford High School. Robert W. Meserve was an Alumni Trustee (1955–59), a Life Trustee (1959–79), Chairman of the Board of Trustees (1964–69), and Trustee Emeritus (1979–95).

The Millenium Challenge Fund, established in 2009 to provide need-based financial aid to undergraduate students at Tufts, and to give others incentive to invest in financial aid at Tufts.

The Charles L. Miller Fund, established as a bequest in 1969 by the late Charles L. Miller, of Greenwich, Connecticut, as an endowed scholarship fund with the income only to be used for the purpose of providing financial aid to worthy and needy students of the university.

The George Stewart Miller Scholarship, established in 1951 by classmates, former students, and friends of George S. Miller of the Class of 1906, acting president 1937–1938, vice president 1939–1951, member of the faculty and administration 1916–1956, and president of the Tufts Alumni Association 1954–1960.

The Marion Stratton Miller Scholarship, established in 1976 in memory of Marion Stratton Miller, for many years an active and loyal member of the Tufts community. In awarding the income of this scholarship, preference is to be given to her direct descendants.

The Pamela A. Milligan and Richard A. Henige Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2010 to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences.

The A. A. Miner Scholarships, founded in 1864 and 1890 by Alonzo Ames Miner, D.D., of Boston.

The Tanya Mitra Scholarship Fund, established in 2012 in memory of Tufts alumna Tanya Mitra, A10. To honor Tanya's memory and continue her legacy, her friends and family created this endowed scholarship fund to benefit pre-med students in the School of Arts and Sciences who wish to pursue a career in medicine and who, like Tanya, are driven to help others both domestically and abroad. Through this scholarship, Tanya's friends and family hope to share the gift of a Tufts education with generations of students, who, like Tanya, are eager to pursue a medical education built upon the solid liberal arts foundation provided by Tufts.

The Adelbert H. Morrison Fund, founded in 1958 under the will of Helen C. Morrison for the benefit of needy and worthy students majoring in engineering, preferably graduates of Boston Technical High School already attending Tufts.

The Gina George Morse Endowed Scholarship, established in 2009 by Gina George Morse, J'84, AG'87, in support of financial aid for undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Science, with preference to students studying child development.

The Joseph W. Morton Memorial Scholarship, established in 1956 by the men and women of the Class of 1931 as their twenty-fifth reunion gift, to be awarded annually to a student in one of the undergraduate schools of Tufts University, preference being given to descendants of members of the Class of 1931 who are otherwise qualified. Named in honor of Joseph W. Morton, A'11, H'56, alumni secretary, 1924–1956.

The Hannah S. Moulton Scholarships, founded in 1914 by Hannah S. Moulton, of Kensington, New Hampshire.

The John Martin Mugar Scholarship Fund, established in 2007 to provide need-based financial aid to create an intentional, intellectual, and broadly diverse community of scholars. Proceeds of this fund will be awarded to first-generation college-bound students.

The Frederick S. and Marie E. Mullen Scholarship, established in 1989 by Robert F. Mullen, Class of 1965, in honor of his parents.

The Louis Sutcliffe Murphy Fund, established in 1977 by Mrs. Louis S. Murphy, Alexandria, Virginia, in memory of her husband, Liberal Arts Class of 1901. The fund is also in memory of her son Louis S. Murphy, Jr., who attended Tufts. The income is available to undergraduate students who display need and academic qualification to the appropriate university officials.

The John and Gail Nackel Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by John G. Nackel, A'73, A'03P and Gail H. Nackel, A03P. This scholarship supports financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates, with a preference for juniors or seniors with an interest in careers in the health professions or students from Medford, MA.

The Michael and Josephine Nackel Scholars Fund, established in 2000 to provide scholarships for undergraduate students of Arab-American heritage or students from the Medford community.

Rosamond Najjar Scholarship Fund, established in 1998 to offer scholarships with preference to graduates of Medford High School.

The Michael and Lisa Nash Scholarship, established in 2008, to support the university's efforts to create an intentional, intellectual, and broadly diverse community of scholars.

The Neary Family Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by James Neary, A'87 and Rebecca Neary, J'87 to increase access to education for stellar but financially-challenged students from diverse backgrounds, particularly under-represented students who are pursuing an undergraduate minor in finance and/or are interested in a career in financial services after graduation.

The Neubauer Scholars Program, established in 2000 by Trustee Joseph Neubauer. The program attracts and enrolls intellectually talented students from across the country and around the world. Neubauer scholars are encouraged to take advantage of research, internship, and study abroad opportunities to broaden their experience and perspectives. The Neubauer Scholars Advisory Committee assists the scholars in the pursuit of scholarly activities.

The Newhouse Scholarship, established in 1997 to offer financial support to low-income students from New York City.

Murdock H. Newman Scholarship Fund, established in 1997 from the estate of Catherine H. Newman in memory of her husband Murdock H. Newman, A'31, to provide financial assistance to deserving students, with preference given to students from Grafton County, New Hampshire.

The New York City Scholarship, established by a private charitable foundation in 1996 to provide financial aid for needy undergraduate students from New York City high schools.

The A. Florence Nichols Scholarship Fund, founded in 1960 under the will of A. Florence Nichols of the Class of 1899, the income from which is to be given annually to some needy and deserving young woman who is working her way through college.

The Malcolm and Mabel Nickerson Scholarship, established by a bequest in 2009 to be invested in the general scholarship fund of Tufts University.

The Fred P. Nickless, Jr., Scholarship Fund, established by the Alumni Association in honor of Fred P. Nickless, Jr., A'48, G'49, for his long and loyal service to Tufts as alumni secretary for thirty years. The income is to be awarded annually to a deserving undergraduate or graduate student(s) in the Colleges of Arts and Sciences. Preference is to be given to Tufts alumni and their children.

The Eugene M. Niles Scholarship Fund, founded in 1927 for scholarships and other student aid.

The Norcross Scholarship, founded in 1890 by James A. and Mary E. Norcross, of Worcester.

The Ronald F. Noreen Scholarship, established in 2007 to benefit students in the School of Arts and Sciences and to increase the diversity, broadly defined, of the Tufts student body.

The North Shore Tufts Club Scholarship, founded in 1969 for the benefit of students of Tufts University. Preference is given to students whose homes are in the communities served by the club on the North Shore of Massachusetts.

The William J. O'Brien, A'42, Scholarship Fund, established in 2013 by the Estate of Freda F. O'Brien to support undergraduates in the School of Arts and Sciences who are studying economics and wish to pursue a career in business or finance. This fund will provide financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates.

The O'Connor-Birmingham Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2006 to provide scholarship funds to increase the diversity of the Tufts student body. Preference will be given to students who have completed the “Step up to Excellence” program, or students who have graduated from public high schools in culturally diverse communities and who have demonstrated personal responsibility and community leadership.

The Offer Family Scholarship Fund, established in 1983 by Mr. Charles Offer, Sr., to aid worthy and appreciative students.

The William R. O'Reilly and Elizabeth Ross Endowed Scholarship Fund, created in 2006 for the benefit of undergraduates at the School of Arts and Sciences. The Fund supports need-based financial aid and promotes the educational benefits of diversity at Tufts University.

The Osher Reentry Scholarship, established in 2009, to be awarded to students who have experienced a gap in their education of at least five years and anticipate participation in the workforce for a significant period of time subsequent to graduation.

The Susan and Richard Pallan Scholarship, established in 1989 to benefit any full-time undergraduate student in need of financial aid.

The Charles A. Pappas Endowed Scholarship, established in 1990 by the Thomas Anthony Pappas Charitable Foundation, Inc., for needy students possessing high scholastic abilities at the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson College.

The Thomas L. Pappas Family Scholarship, established in 2012 by Thomas L. Pappas, A'83, A'12P. The purpose of this fund is to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences, with first preference being given to students who are the first in their families to attend college and students double-majoring in mathematics or the sciences.

The Parets Family Scholarship, established in 2005 to provide financial aid to Tufts students, with preference to students of limited financial means who possess high academic potential and a demonstrated commitment to achieving scholastic excellence in the study of arts and sciences.

The Parks Family Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2014 by Eileen M. Parks, J'63, and Thomas W. Parks to support students within the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Theodore L. and Ruth B. Parrella Scholarship Fund, established in 2007 by Carol L. Parrella, E85, in memory of her parents, to support undergraduates in the School of Engineering with preference given to a female student majoring in Mechanical Engineering.

The Adoniram J. and Jane L. Patterson Scholarship, founded in 1920 by Adoniram J. Patterson, of Roxbury, Massachusetts.

The Ethel L. Peabody Scholarship Fund, established in 1975 by Miss Ethel L. Peabody of the Jackson College Class of 1915. Preference is given to former students of the Fitchburg, Massachusetts, High School already attending Tufts.

The Ellery E. Peck Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1891 by Henry Rollins, of Bangor, Maine.

The Pederson Memorial Scholarship, established in 2008, to benefit undergraduate students of the Faculty of Arts, Sciences, and Engineering who are pursuing academic majors in the humanities, including Classics, Comparative Religion, English, Foreign Languages, History, Philosophy, Visual and Critical Studies, or similar areas.

The Joseph and Rosaria Peduto Scholarship, established in 2008 to support a preference to provide financial aid to students of Italian descent.

The William L. Peduto Scholarship, established in 2008, to support the University's efforts to create an intentional community of diverse learners.

The Dorothy Penniman Latin Scholarship, established in 1979 through the generosity of Dorothy Penniman Hubbard of the Jackson Class of 1925. The donor studied Latin at Tufts, later taught Latin, and understands the lasting and multiple benefits of knowledge of the subject. She has established this fund in the hope that it will encourage other students to pursue the study of Latin. First preference at all times is given to students in need of financial aid enrolled in Latin courses in the Department of Classics.

The Penniman Scholarship, established in 1944 by Dorothy Penniman Hubbard and Ruth Penniman Ware in memory of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. George Wallace Penniman, the income from which is to be used annually to aid some deserving student with preference to students majoring in religion.

The Ralph Wentworth Penniman Memorial Scholarship, established in 1982 by Dorothy Penniman Hubbard of the Jackson Class of 1925 in memory of her brother, who was a graduate of the Tufts College Class of 1910. Income from the fund is restricted to students in the College of Liberal Arts, with preference to students majoring in history.

The Louis and Mary Perito Memorial Scholarship, established in 1982 by Paul L. Perito of the Class of 1959, in memory of his parents. The income from this fund is to be awarded annually to a deserving student in the College of Liberal Arts or Jackson College.

The John B. Perkins Scholarship, founded in 1866 by James D. Perkins, of New Rochelle, New York.

The John Perkins Scholarship, founded in 1896 by Ann Maria Perkins, of Medford, Massachusetts.

The Nancy Tabb Pfannenstiehl Memorial Scholarship Fund, established in 1993 by her family and friends, given with preference to undergraduate women majoring in romance languages.

The Joseph D. Pierce Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1898 by the children and other relatives of J. D. Pierce, D.D., of Attleboro, Massachusetts.

The Julius Pinkus Scholarships, founded in 1987 from the estate of Julius Pinkus in memory of Barney and Tobey Pinkus, Dr. Louis Pinkus, M'25, and Julius Pinkus. The income is divided equally among the School of Medicine, the College of Liberal Arts, and the Department of Music to be used as scholarship aid to worthy students.

The Percy J. Pitkin Scholarship, founded in 1983 by Percy J. Pitkin of the Class of 1923.

The Ernesto Poma Family Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Tufts parents, Ernesto and Cecelia Poma, A'13P to provide financial aid for Tufts University undergraduate students, with a preference for students who are from Latin America.

The Frank W. Pote Memorial Fund, established in 1982 in memory of Frank W. Pote, professor of physics at Tufts from 1912 to 1953, by his family and friends. The income from this fund is to be utilized to help deserving students who are majoring in physics.

The Marion S. Potter Scholarship Fund, founded in 1958 under the will of Marion S. Potter, to be used to provide scholarships for worthy students in the College of Liberal Arts of Tufts University.

The Melvin and Shirley Prague Scholarship, established in 2000, to be awarded to a member of the Tufts student body who has established and maintained a record of above average academic performance, has contributed earnest service to and/or beyond the Tufts community, and has demonstrated financial need.

The Theresa Winsor Pratt Endowed Scholarship, established in 2000 in memory of Theresa Pratt to provide financial aid for undergraduate students in the Resumed Education for Adult Learners (REAL) Program.

The Douglas and Susan Present Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 to benefit students in the School of Arts and Sciences, with preference given to academically qualified alumni of New Jersey SEEDS programs.

The David and Ethel Presson Scholarship, established in 1956 by David Presson, of Boston.

The John William Priesing and Carl William Priesing Scholarship, established in 1950 by Carl W. Priesing of the Class of 1921, in memory of his father. The name of Carl W. Priesing was added in 1976 in honor of Mr. Priesing's fifty-fifth reunion year by his son.

The Jay Pritzker Scholarship, established in 2002 as a matching challenge grant to support need-based financial aid that will be awarded to promote the achievement of the educational benefits of diversity at Tufts. Scholars are named for Jay Pritzker, Howard Hunter, or the names chosen by donors of qualifying gifts.

The Paul Pryor Scholarship Fund, established in 1988 by the estate of Paul I. Pryor, A'18, for the benefit of deserving male students in the College of Liberal Arts, with preference given to those active in extracurricular activities.

The Carolyn Fraser Pulling Scholarship Fund, established in 1980 to aid worthy students by bequest of Mrs. Arthur (Carolyn Fraser) Pulling, Women of Arts, Class of 1908.

The Gregory and Christine Randolph Scholarship, established in 2008 to provide scholarship support for students who have demonstrated financial need.

The Saul C. Ravitch Memorial Scholarship, established in 1952 by Mrs. Sylvia Ravitch in memory of her husband Saul C. Ravitch of the Class of 1922.

The Joel Reed Memorial Scholarship, established in 1988 to provide a scholarship fund for commuting students who exemplify Joel Reed's academic diligence and community service, thereby encouraging this effort and ensuring that Joel's name and spirit live on.

The Reed Family Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2010 by Bruce N. Reed, E'47, in honor of his family and in support of undergraduate scholarships at Tufts, with preference to students who are descendants of Tufts Naval V-12 and Naval ROTC participants during the years 1941 to 1948.

The Rennert Family Scholarship, established in 2008 to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Resnek Family Scholarship Fund, established in 1988 by Frank, Barbara, and Paul Resnek, A'97, to provide tuition assistance for talented students attending Tufts University, with preference to citizens of the United States.

The Joel W. and Marion Newhall Reynolds Scholarship, established in 1951 by Joel W. Reynolds, Jr., of the Class of 1923, and Marion Newhall Reynolds, Jackson Class of 1924. The income from this fund is to be divided equally each year between a student of the School of Engineering and a student of Jackson College.

The Rhode Island Scholarship, founded in 1899 by several persons in Rhode Island.

The Mary A. Richardson Scholarship, founded in 1904 by Mrs. Mary A. Richardson, of Worcester, Massachusetts.

The William B. Richardson Scholarship, established in 1952 by William B. Richardson of the Class of 1915.

The Ringer-Breed Scholarship was established by the late Alison M. Breed, J'66, AG'72, a Tufts University trustee, to provide financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates who demonstrate financial need, leadership in campus activities or non-political community service and achievement in endeavors such as academics, the arts, athletics, entrepreneurship, or technology. The scholarship was created in honor of Wilfred H. Ringer, Class of 1907; Beth Ringer Moran, J'32; Wilfred H. Ringer, Jr., E'37, and Hayden N. Ringer, E'44.

The Rittenburg Family Scholarship Fund, established in 1989 by members of the Rittenburg family to provide scholarships to deserving students of the School of Engineering. Scholarships shall be awarded by the Dean and the Office of Financial Aid.

The Pilar Crespi Robert Scholarship Fund, established in 2003 as part of the Pritzker Challenge to benefit outstanding undergraduate students of African American, Hispanic American, and Native American heritage.

The Rebecca T. Robinson Scholarship, founded in 1890 by Charles Robinson, L.L.D., of Newton, Massachusetts.

The Emily Graham Rose Memorial Scholarship, established in 1965, for the benefit of deserving students in Jackson College and Tufts College.

The Tufts ROTC/Veterans Scholarship was established in 2014 to support financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates in the ROTC program or for returning United States veterans who are enrolled as undergraduate students.

The Professor Fred Rothbaum Scholarship Fund was established in 2013 in memory of Tufts University Professor Fred Rothbaum. The fund will honor Professor Rothbaum's life by supporting student scholars in the Eliot-Pearson Department of Child Study and Human Development.

The Jeffrey and Marieke Rothschild Endowed Scholarship was established in 2015 by Jeffrey and Marieke Rothschild, E'18P, to support financial aid for Tufts University undergraduate students.

The Gertrude Rubel Scholarship, established in 1998 to provide financial aid for undergraduate students from Medford and Somerville, Massachusetts.

The Elbridge Rust Scholarship Fund, founded in 1926 by Elbridge Rust, of Peabody, Massachusetts.

The Ankur and Mari Sahu Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 to support scholarships within the School of Arts and Sciences. Students must be eligible for financial aid and will demonstrate superior ability, achievement and potential for leadership, with preference to female students from South Asian countries.

David and Gertrude M. Saklad Fund, established in 1990 under the will of David Saklad, E'21, to provide scholarships to students in engineering science and computer science who have completed freshman year, have shown academic skill, and require financial assistance.

The Ruth Salaway Friedman Memorial Fund, established in 2013 through the Estate of Gertrude Elizabeth Salaway to provide financial aid for Tufts University undergraduates.

The Lori Winters Samuels and Ted Samuels Family Scholarship, established in 2006 to provide need-based undergraduate financial aid to promote diversity at Tufts.

The Herbert J. and Harriet S. Sandberg Family Scholarship, established in 2004 to provide scholarship to African American, Native American, and Hispanic American students with financial need. Preference is given to students meeting these criteria who have graduated from Medford High School in Medford, Massachusetts.

The Albert W. Sayles Scholarship, founded in 1899 by Albert W. Sayles, of Lowell, Massachusetts.

The Sarah E. Sayles Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1891 by Albert W. Sayles, of Lowell, Massachusetts.

The Scaramucci Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2006 for the benefit of undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences and to increase the diversity of the student body.

The Irving and Hannah Schwartz Scholarship, established in 1951 by Joseph and Irving Schwartz of the Class of 1937, in honor of their parents and in honor of Dr. Siegfried Thannhauser.

The William and Lillian Schwartz Student Scholarship, founded in 1984 for the benefit of needy and worthy students.

The Scott Fund, established in 1932 by the will of Augustus E. Scott, of Lexington, Massachusetts.

The Laura A. Scott Scholarship, founded in 1890 by Mrs. Laura A. Scott, of Ridgefield, Connecticut.

The Segalas Family Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2007 to increase the diversity of the undergraduate student body.

The Margaret and Donald Segur Scholarship, established in 2000 to provide support to students from Armenia at the Fletcher School of Law and Diplomacy or at the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson College, who are studying political science, economics, prelaw, or journalism. Second preference goes to students of Armenian descent at the Fletcher School, and third preference goes to undergraduate students of Armenian descent at the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson College, who are studying political science, economics, prelaw, or journalism.

The Usha and William Sellers Scholarship, established in 2009 to provide financial aid to international undergraduate students coming to study at Tufts from India, with particular preference to students who are Dalit and/or come from an impoverished background.

The William J. Sen Scholarship Fund, established in 1982 by William J. Sen, E'40. The income of this fund is to be used annually to aid students of the School of Engineering, with preference to undergraduates and minority students.

The Evelyn and Joseph Shapiro Endowed Scholarship, established in 2007 to provide annual scholarship funds to undergraduate students who are in good academic standing.

The Frank S. and Eva A. Shapiro Scholarship Fund, established in 1955 by Frank S. Shapiro of the Class of 1916, the income to assist worthy undergraduate students with preference being given to students interested in chemistry.

The Mildred and Sumner Shapiro Scholarship, established in 1997 to provide financial assistance to students in the Tufts College of Liberal Arts.

The Edwin A. Shaw Memorial Scholarship, established in 1952 by former students, family, and friends in memory of Edwin Adams Shaw of the Class of 1898 and professor of education, 1919–1950.

The Henry J. and Louise O. Shea Scholarship, established in 1987 to provide scholarships to needy and deserving students.

The William H. Sherman Scholarship, founded in 1903 by William H. Sherman, of Cambridge, Massachusetts.

The A. Shuman Scholarship, founded in 1923 by A. Shuman of Boston.

The Hettie Lang Shuman Memorial Fund, founded in 1905 by Mr. A. Shuman in memory of his wife. The interest of this fund is expended annually in aiding deserving women students.

The Frank and Virginia Siegel Scholarship, established in 2012 by Tufts parents Frank and Virginia Siegel, A'15P, to support financial aid for Tufts undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Seymour and Marcia Simches Scholarship Fund, established in 1986 by friends and family members of Professor Seymour Simches. This fund will be awarded annually to an outstanding student in financial need who is majoring in one of the humanities.

The Simmons Scholarships, founded in 1895 by Robert F. Simmons, of Attleboro, in the name of Mary F. and Robert F. Simmons.

The Miriam Charef Simonds Scholarship Fund, established by her sister, Pauline Charef Simonds, Jackson '54, with assistance from family, friends, and colleagues. An ardent student of American political life, Mimi Simonds possessed, to an exceptional degree, an ability to respond creatively and effectively to the social and political issues of her time. She performed outstanding public service at the community, state, and national levels. In keeping with the compelling interests of her life, it is the family's wish that the annual income from this scholarship fund be awarded to a student in the Graduate Program in Public Policy and Citizen Participation who is deemed both financially and academically worthy of this recognition and who has completed one year of study. For Mimi Simonds, hope for the future was a premise that sustained her until her death. It is the intent of this scholarship to provide a living legacy of that hope and a memorial to the commitment which she brought to public service.

The Simons Family Scholarship, established in 1987 to provide a partial scholarship in the College of Liberal Arts.

The Simons Memorial Scholarship, founded in 1891 by Mrs. Mary A. Simons, of Manchester, New Hampshire, in memory of Hiram H. Augustus and Frank Simons.

The Charles A. and Cornelia B. Skinner Scholarship, founded in 1907 by the Reverend Charles A. Skinner, D.D., and Mrs. Cornelia B. Skinner, of Cambridge, Massachusetts.

The Capt. Benjamin Sklaver Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2010 in memory of Benjamin Sklaver, A99, F03. It should be awarded annually to one or more undergraduate student(s), in the college of Liberal Arts or Engineering, in need of financial assistance who have demonstrated a commitment to public service, international relations, and/or human rights.

The John Richard Skuse, Class of 1941, Memorial Scholarship, established in 1999 by the bequest of John Richard Skuse to provide financial aid to Tufts students based on ability, achievement, and need. First preference is given to students from the town of Exeter, New Hampshire.

The Abraham and Sonya Slifka Scholarship Fund, established in 1991 to provide financial aid for undergraduate students.

The Phyllis E. Sloan Endowed Scholarship, established in 2009 to support undergraduate scholarships within the University.

The Michael B. Slone, A'89 Endowed Scholarship for Talloires, established in 2010 in memory of Michael Bennett Slone, A'89, to benefit students with demonstrated financial need, whose plan of study includes the European Center in Talloires.

The Charles E. Smith Scholarship, established in 1952 by Charles Eugene Smith of the Class of 1922, the income to be awarded to a young man in the College of Liberal Arts.

The Dana Weiss Smith and Robert A. Smith Scholarship, established in 2013 to support financial aid for undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences at Tufts University.

The Rena Greenwood Smith Scholarship Fund, established in 1986 by the Richard Ilsey Smith Trust to benefit a worthy student of Jackson College.

The Richard Ilsey Smith Scholarship Fund, established in 1986 to benefit a worthy student of the university.

The Simeon C. Smith and Emily A. Smith Scholarship Gift. The income from a trust fund established by Simeon C. Smith to be known as the Simeon C. Smith and Emily A. Smith Fund, allocated by the trustees for scholarship purposes.

The George A. Spencer Scholarship, established in 2000 to benefit deserving students from the School of Engineering at Tufts University.

The Virginia Nold Spencer Memorial Scholarship, established in 1996 to help ensure a Tufts engineering education to the most qualified students regardless of their financial capabilities.

The John Murray Sprague and Eliza Fletcher Sprague Scholarship, founded in 1908 by John Sprague, of Lowell, Massachusetts.

The Miriam Carleton Squires Scholarship, established in 1971 under the will of Miriam Carleton Squires, of Broken Bow, Nebraska, a member of the Class of 1908.

The Marjorie Cohen Stanzler Scholarship Fund, established in 2002 to provide financial aid to needy students who are citizens of the United States.

The Edwin Carter Starr Memorial Scholarship, established in 1980 by Mrs. Paul (Catherine S.) Phenix in memory of her father. The income is awarded annually to benefit students in the field of child development.

The State Scholarships, established in 1859 in accordance with a resolve of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

The Charles E. Stearns Scholarship Fund, established by students, colleagues, friends, and family to honor the exceptional fifty-year career of Charlie Stearns, A'39, as a gifted student, a caring and intellectually stimulating professor, and a loyal and insightful dean. It is intended to support one or more Geology students who have demonstrated attention to detail, thoughtful analysis, and insight to their geological studies. In the absence of students fitting the above criteria, the Stearns Scholarship Fund may be used to support gifted students in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Bruce and Irene Steinberg Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Bruce and Irene Steinberg to provide financial aid for undergraduate students in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences, with a preference for students who are studying International Relations and have participated in Tufts 1+4.

The William and Mary-Jane Sterling Scholarship, founded in 1985 by William C. Sterling, Jr., of the Class of 1956 to aid worthy undergraduates in obtaining the benefits of education.

The Stern Family Endowed Scholarship, established in 2000 to benefit outstanding undergraduate students.

The Dale Stevens Scholarship, founded in memory of the late Dale Stevens, of North Andover. Awarded to a student majoring in the Eliot-Pearson Department of Child Study and Human Development. Preference is given to undergraduates at Tufts from North Andover, Massachusetts, or other communities in the Merrimack Valley.

The Stevens Family Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2014 by Beryl Stevens Harper, J'69, to support students within the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Frederick W. Storck Memorial Fund, established in 1989, the income to be used for undergraduate financial aid at the university.

The Stowe Scholarship, founded in 1890 by Mrs. Eugenia D. Stowe, of Meriden, Connecticut.

The John and Lucy H. Stowe Fund, founded in 1902 by bequest of Mrs. Stowe of Lawrence, Massachusetts, "for the benefit of the lady students department."

The Harry Louis Strecker Scholarship, established in 1969 as a bequest by the late Harry L. Strecker, Class of 1913, of Livingston, New Jersey. The income thereof is to be used to assist a worthy student in the electrical engineering department.

The Carl and Alice Stroehmann Scholarship, established in 1953 by Carl F. Stroehmann of the Class of 1919.

The Students Against All Odds Scholarship, established in 2002, to provide support to students who are distinguished not only by their academic progress and potential, but also especially by their success in overcoming normally insurmountable obstacles. Preference will be given to students who have demonstrated scholastic ability, service to community and/or family, and a work ethic by earning funds for college either in summer employment or during the school year.

The Ellen G. Sullivan Scholarship, established in 2002 to provide financial aid to needy undergraduate Black American students majoring in Child Development.

The Dorothy Sulloway Sweet Scholarship, founded in 1933 by Joseph L. Sweet and Florence M. Sweet.

The Judith P. Sulzberger Scholarship, established in 1997 to provide funds to particularly needy underrepresented-minority students from New York City.

The Carl Lars Svensen Scholarship, established in 1952 by Carl Lars Svensen of the Class of 1907, the income to be given to a student in the School of Engineering.

The Gerald L. Swartwood Endowed Scholarship Fund for Engineering, established in 2011 through the estate of Gladys Swartwood and in memory of her husband, Gerald Swartwood, E'46.

The Elbridge Sweet Scholarship, founded in 1933 by Joseph L. Sweet and Florence H. Sweet.

The Dr. Elliott H. Sweetser and Aileen B. Sweetser Scholarship Fund, which benefits undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences at Tufts University.

The Talbot Scholarship, founded in 1890 by Newton Talbot, of Boston.

The Lloyd H. Taylor Scholarship, established in 1984 to aid qualified students in the School of Engineering.

The Paul E. Thissell Scholarship, in memory of Paul Thissell of the class of 1921 and Bernice Tilden Kidder. Preference is given to a Massachusetts-born student majoring in French.

The Louise F. Thistle Endowed Scholarship, established in 2009 in support of financial aid for Tufts undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences.

The Albert Thomann, A'52, and Maria Thomann Scholarship, established in 2005, to be awarded to one or more worthy and promising students who are determined to be in need of financial aid. Scholarships may be awarded to students in any class and may be continued up to four years as long as the recipient remains in good standing.

The George C. Thomas Scholarship, founded in 1899 by George S. Thomas, of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

The Tiampo Family Endowed Scholarship Fund, established In 2012 by James Tiampo, E'83, A'83 and Kristy Tiampo, E'83, to support scholarships within the School of Engineering at Tufts University. Kristy and Jim met while studying Civil Engineering at Tufts and are both grateful for the education they received and committed to helping deserving students enjoy the excellent learning experience Tufts offers.

The Frederick W. Tibbets Memorial Fund, established in 1942 by bequest of M. Helen Tibbets, late of Gloucester, Massachusetts, as a memorial to her late brother Frederick W. Tibbets of the Class of 1879. Income is used to aid worthy and needy students.

The TOMS Scholars Endowed Fund, established in 2012 to provide need-based financial aid to students in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences, with a preference for international students.

The Walter V. Towle Scholarship Fund, established in 1963 by bequest of Grace H. Towle, the income to be used to assist students of the highest scholastic standing.

The Neil W. and Elizabeth S. Townsend Scholarship, established in 2014 by Elizabeth Townsend, J'90, and Neil Townsend, E'87, to support undergraduate students within the Schools of Arts and Sciences and Engineering.

The Travelli Scholarship, founded in 1890 by Mrs. Emma R. Travelli, of Newton.

The Hyman S. and Edith Rieva M. Trilling Scholarship, founded in 1984 to benefit students in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson College.

The Tufts Kinsmen Scholarship, for aid to students with preference to Tufts family descendants. Awards from income are made on basis of need and achievement to those who have completed one year or more at Tufts.

The Betsy Houses Twombly Scholarship, established in 1993 to provide assistance toward tuition, room, and board for a worthy and needy female student in either Tufts or Jackson College.

The A. Raymond and Eileen Tye Scholarship, established in 1994 to provide financial aid and to assist with the tuition of qualified undergraduates who are pursuing their educational goals.

The Tyler Scholarship, founded in 1919 by Susan E. Tyler, of Lowell, Massachusetts.

The Irving Usen Scholarship, established in 1952 by Irving Usen in memory of W. A. Carroll. The income is to be available for a qualified, needy young man or young woman whose parents are fishermen residing in New England and preferably residents of Gloucester, Massachusetts, or Portland, Maine.

The Albert Whittier Vanderhoof Scholarship, established in 1959 in honor of Albert W. Vanderhoof of the Class of 1924.

The Verschleiser Family Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Amy Lederman Verschleiser, J'92 and Jeffrey Verschleiser to provide financial aid for undergraduate students in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences.

The Villamil-Davis Family Scholarship, established in 2004 for the benefit of undergraduate students and to increase the diversity of the student body.

The Teri Volpert '84 and Barry Volpert Endowed Scholarship, established in 2005, awarded to students with demonstrated financial need who have excelled in the classroom.

The Peter J. Wade Scholarship, established in 1999 to provide scholarships to students pursuing studies in studio art or graphic design. Preference is given to juniors or seniors who have shown excellence in some area of studio art or graphic design and who are enrolled in the five-year, dual-degree program with the Museum School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston.

The Albert and Renee Waldman Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 to provide scholarships to one or more students in the College of Liberal Arts and Jackson College.

The Joseph H. Walker Scholarship, founded in 1898 by Joseph H. Walker, of Worcester, Massachusetts.

The Walker Mathematical Scholarship, established in 1865 in honor of William J. Walker, M.D., of Newport, Rhode Island, and payable from the income of the Walker Fund.

The Julia Ward Scholarship, established in 2007 to further Tufts' efforts to create an intentional, intellectual and broadly diverse community of scholars, to include students from a wide variety of socio-economic, geographic, cultural, ethnic, and political backgrounds.

The Mary Ann Ward Scholarship, founded in 1892 by Sylvester L. Ward, of Boston.

The Warren Educational Fund Scholarship, the income for the benefit of a worthy student, preference being given to students from St. Paul's Universalist Church, Springfield, Massachusetts.

The Warren Scholarship, founded in 1905 by Dr. Ira Warren, of Boston.

The Sarah A. Watson Scholarship Fund, founded in 1958 under the will of Sarah A. Watson for the benefit of Jackson College, the income and interest to be expended for the aid of a deserving student who would not otherwise have the benefits of further education.

The Dorothy Altman Weber, J'64 and Stephen R. Weber Endowed Scholarship was established in 2014 to provide financial aid for Tufts University undergraduate students.

The Marcia D. Weber Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2011 by Marcia Weber, J'71 to support students of financial need who are majoring in Child Study and Human Development in the Eliot-Pearson Department.

The Alice Weeks–Jesse Dowse Endowment Fund, established in 1990 by the estate of Albert W. Weeks in memory of Alice M. Weeks and her mother, Jesse Dowse, both graduates in mathematics at Tufts, to provide financial aid to students attending Tufts College or the Graduate School of Arts and Sciences.

The Gerald and Ruth Weil Scholarship, established in 2008, to provide financial resources to needy students who are identified by the university as increasing diversity at Tufts.

The Mark Weisberg Scholarship Fund, founded in 1948 by Mark Weisberg of the Class of 1918.

The J. Frank Wellington Scholarship, established in 1931.

The Jonas Clark Wellington Scholarship, founded in 1906 by Mrs. Sarah C. Fisher Wellington, of Cambridge, Massachusetts.

The West Medford Woman's Club Scholarship, established to provide scholarship assistance to students in Jackson College and Tufts College, with preference given, when possible, to a resident of Medford, Massachusetts.

The Peter and Martha Wetzel Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 by Peter J. Wetzel, E'61 and Martha Wetzel to provide financial aid for students in the Tufts University School of Engineering, with an interest in supporting those from Southern California.

The Joshua S. and Harriet N. White Scholarship, founded in 1896 by Joshua S. White, of Pawtucket, Rhode Island.

The Nathaniel White Scholarship, founded in 1899 by Armenia S. White, of Concord, New Hampshire.

The Amasa and Hannah L. Whiting Scholarship, founded in 1890 by Mrs. Hannah L. Whiting, of Hingham, Massachusetts.

The Whittier Scholarship, founded in 1890 by Charles Whittier, of Roxbury, Massachusetts, in the name of Charles and Eliza Isabel Whittier.

The Allton T. and Dorothea Danver Williams Scholarship, established in 1989 by Kenneth D. Williams in honor of his parents, Allton T., A'19, and Dorothea Danver Williams, J'18, to support students in good academic standing, with financial need, pursuing a major in environmental studies.

The Willner Family Scholarship, established in 1998 to provide aid to academically promising students from New York City with family incomes that are particularly modest. Additional preference will be given to students showing promise in the visual or performing arts at Tufts.

The Gladys Emilia Wilson Scholarship, an endowed scholarship that benefits students at the School of Arts and Sciences. The scholarship was established in 2010 with a gift from the estate of Gladys Emilia Wilson, A'69.

The Gary S. Winick Scholarship was established in 2012 by Hilary Edson Polk, J'84, and Lyon Polk III, to honor the memory of Gary S. Winick, A'84. The scholarship supports financial aid for Tufts undergraduate students in the School of Arts and Sciences, with a preference for those with an interest in filmmaking.

The Thomas F. Winkler Scholarship, established in 2008 to provide need-based financial aid to undergraduate students and to increase the diversity of the Tufts undergraduate student body.

The Winnick Family Foundation Scholarship, established in 2000 to provide aid to undergraduate students at Tufts.

The Dara Wolbom Memorial Endowment, established in 1997 in memory of Dara Wolbom, J'99, to provide financial aid to Tufts undergraduates, with first preference to female students in their junior year who have distinguished themselves in English or journalism.

The Norman P. Wood Scholarship, established under the will of Nellie M. Wood, late of Northfield, Massachusetts, as "a scholarship in the Department of Classics to be known as the Norman P. Wood Scholarship."

The Frank G. Wren Memorial Scholarship, established in 1951 by friends, family, and former students of Frank G. Wren of the Class of 1894, member of the faculty (1895–1940), and dean (1907–1939).

The Paul I. and Alice T. Wren Memorial Scholarship, established in 2001 to aid deserving liberal arts and engineering students.

The Joseph N. Wright Memorial Scholarship, for undergraduate students studying in Tufts Programs Abroad, with preference for those studying in Germany.

The Robert Yanofsky, A'38 Endowed Scholarship, established in 2004 to provide financial aid for undergraduate students. Preference will be given to students with limited financial means who possess high academic potential and a demonstrated commitment to achieving scholastic excellence.

The Eric A'87 and Julie Lane J'88 Yamin Endowed Scholarship Fund was established in 2014 to provide financial aid for undergraduate students in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences.

The Francis Yirrel Scholarship, founded in memory of Francis Yirrel of the Class of 1949, established by his friends and classmates to assist deserving students.

The Doris W. York Endowed Scholarship Fund, established in 2005 by a bequest from Doris York of Somerville, Massachusetts, to provide financial aid to female students who attended Somerville High School.

The Howard S. Young Scholarship Fund, established in 1982 to provide scholarships for civil engineering students.

The Young Men's Philanthropic League Scholarship, established in 1960 by the Young Men's Philanthropic League of New York, the income from this fund to be used for scholarships for undergraduate and graduate students in Tufts University.

The Mariann Arrighi and Andrew James Youniss Family Endowed Scholarship was established in 2014 by Mariann Youniss, J'83 and Andrew Youniss to provide financial aid for undergraduate students in the Tufts University School of Arts and Sciences.

The Stanton "Bud" Yusem Endowed Scholarship, established in 2000 to provide financial aid to Tufts undergraduate students with financial need.

The Zeta Psi Class of 1969 Scholarship, established in 2009 to provide scholarships to undergraduate students with financial need who are likely to contribute to Tufts' educational and mission-related goals, including the benefits associated with a diverse student body. Preference will be given to qualified students who are currently fraternity brothers of the Zeta Psi fraternity.