BLACK HISTORY MONTH EVENTS

THE ANNUAL MARTIN LUTHER KING JUNIOR CELEBRATION
Monday, January 31, 2011
4:30PM
Goddard Chapel

THINKING WHILE BLACK: A PEDAGOGICAL IMPERATIVE FROM AFRICANA STUDIES
Dr. Lewis Gordon Talks about Race and Social Thought
Thursday, February 3, 2011
6:00PM - 7:30PM
Granoff Music Center, Varis Lecture Hall (Room 155)

HANK WILLIS THOMAS VISIT
Photo Conceptual Artist With a Focus on Identity, History, and Popular Culture
Tuesday, February 8, 2011
5:30PM
Alumnae Lounge, Aidekman Arts Center

BLACK HISTORY MONTH FILM SERIES
Thursdays 6:00PM in Olin Hall Room 011
February 10, 2011 Daughters of the Dust
February 17, 2011 Within our Gates
February 24, 2011 Once upon a time…When We Were Colored
March 3, 2011 The Language You Cry In

WHAT DOES BLACK HISTORY MONTH MEAN TO YOU?
Black Men’s Group Discussion
Friday, February 11, 2011
5:30PM
Capen House

BLACK MEN’S GROUP BOSTON EXCURSION
Friday, February 25, 2011
Leave from Capen House at 5:30PM

“WHAT’S LOVE GOT TO DO WITH IT?”
A collaborative forum between Black Women’s Collective and Black Men’s Group to discuss dating, relationships, and the changing shape of black families in today’s society
Sunday, February 13th, 2011
4:00PM-5:00PM
Capen House

“SOUL CUISINE 2011”
An interactive cooking session teaching the history behind various “Soul Food” dishes
Sunday, February 27th, 2011
4:00PM-5:00PM
Capen House

AFRICAN DIVAS EXHIBIT - PAINTINGS BY MARGARET ROSE VENDRYES
Friday, March 4, 2011
5:30PM-8:00PM
Slater Concourse Gallery