2020 Summer Financial Aid Application
(Global Education)

Tufts Administration made funding available to help students pay for Tufts summer courses/programs. This scholarship is only for students currently enrolled at Tufts University. The amount of funding is limited, and preference will be given to lower income students. (Low income students are generally considered to be those with a family contribution of $7,000 or less). Federal aid may also be available based upon the criteria below. International students are eligible to receive a Summer Scholarship.

Priority will be given to applications received by January 17th. Late Applications will be accepted after January 17th, but funding may be limited.

<tr>
<th>Federal Direct Loan</th>
<th>The Federal Direct Loan is available you haven’t borrowed your annual loan limit during the fall and spring semesters. You may view your aid award on SIS to see if you reached your maximum grade level Direct Loan borrowing ($5500 for first-years, $6500 for sophomores and $7500 for juniors &amp; seniors). A student must be enrolled for a minimum of 6 SHUs in order to receive Federal Direct Loan funds for the summer. You must request to borrow a Federal Direct Loan for it to be added to your summer financial aid award.</th>

<td>Federal Pell Grant</td>
<td>A Federal Pell Grant may be available if you received a Pell grant in the current academic year and are enrolled in a minimum of 6 SHUs during the summer. The amount of the summer Pell grant is based upon the amount you received during the fall and spring semester. If enrolled in 6 SHUs, the Pell grant could range from $0 to a maximum of $1,549. If you receive a Summer Scholarship and are eligible for a Federal Pell grant, the amount of the Summer Scholarship will be reduced by the amount of the Pell grant received. A Pell Grant will automatically be added to your summer financial aid award if eligible.</td>
